Affirmation of Member Commitment

I will be diligent to exercise self-control so that my lifestyle exhibits both true Christian love and personal holiness.

I will faithfully assemble with this body of believers, striving to maintain unity, and doing all I can to stimulate love and good deeds in others as I seek to exercise my spiritual gifts in faithful service.

I will consistently contribute, as a good steward of God's blessings, such time, talent, and resources, in the measure that God prospers me, so that the local and worldwide ministry of spreading the gospel may continue.

I will teach biblical truth to my family and acquaintances, as God gives me opportunity, with a desire to see them come to trust Jesus Christ and be saved.

I will always be willing to both give and receive admonition and instruction with meekness and in love.

I will commit to praying for the ministry here in this church, my brothers and sisters in Christ, the elders, pastors, and deacons; and for the lost who need the Savior.

I will, with the aid of the Holy Spirit, seek to love, encourage, teach, admonish, comfort, and exhort other members, with a genuine desire to see each one grow in the knowledge of Christ and His Word.

Book of the Month

The Bruised Reed
by Richard Sibbes

"You will find, I think, in general that the Puritans are almost invariably helpful...I shall never cease to be grateful to one of them called Richard Sibbes who was balm to my soul at a period in my life when I was overworked and badly overtired, and therefore subject in an unusual manner to the onslaughts of the devil. In that state and condition...what you need is some gentle, tender treatment for your soul. I found at that time that Richard Sibbes, who was known in London in the early seventeenth century as 'the heavenly Doctor Sibbes,' was an unfailing remedy. His books The Bruised Reed and The Soul's Conflict quietened, soothed, comforted, encouraged and healed me."

- Dr. Martyn Lloyd Jones

Weekly Resource

"God's People Are a Waiting People"
by Jonathan Gibson

" Although the longings, hopes, and expectations of the coming, conquering son are met in Jesus's first coming, it does not change the reality that God's people are a waiting people. Following Jesus's ascension to his Father's right hand, New Testament believers are still called to adopt the same anticipatory posture. In his Farewell Discourse, Jesus tells his disciples that he is going away to prepare a place for them but that he will come again to bring them to that heavenly home prepared for them (John 14:3). He promises, 'I will not leave you as orphans; I will come to you' (John 14:18)..."

Outreach Prayer
Indian Bible College
Flagstaff, Arizona

Join us in praising God for IBC. God is good and gracious in providing a school that is biblically-rooted and gospel-centered in its education for students who desire to bring the message of Jesus Christ to Native Americans. Praise God for the continued provision of funds, staffing, students, and spiritual growth in and through IBC.

Join us in praying for IBC as they begin the Spring 2024 semester. Pray for the staff in that they'd continue to be a blessing to students. Pray for Daniel and Coreen Esplin: For Daniel, as he travels for both recruitment trips and other events in Phoenix. For Coreen, as she heads to the valley each Thursday for class at Phoenix Seminary, and also for the women's mentoring group she leads at IBC.

Finally, please be in prayer for students. Pray that as they continue to grow in understanding, they would also grow in delighting in God more and grow in boasting of nothing but the cross of Christ.

Introduction to Isaiah

What do I learn about God?

Is there anything for which I should repent based on this text?

How might God use this passage to make me look more like Christ?

How does this passage affect evangelism?

How can I edify the church based on what this passage says?
