I delivered to you as of first importance what I also received: that Christ died for our sins in accordance with the Scriptures, that he was buried, that he was raised on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures, and that he appeared to Cephas, then to the twelve. Then he appeared to more than five hundred brothers at one time.

Book of the Month: The Gospel Comes with a House Key
by Rosaria Butterfield
"God strongly advances his cause by raising up prophetic voices of fresh insight, bold words, and powerful impact. Rosaria Butterfield is just such a voice for God in our time. The Gospel Comes with a House Key is Rosaria's heart reaching out to our hearts, calling us to love our neighbors with sacrificial hospitality. This book is going to shake us all up in the most wonderfully destabilizing way."

Saint and Sinner

Romans 7:14-25

Monday

Epistle Project: Galatians 6:11-18

After writing his letter to the Galatians by way of amanuensis, Paul picks up the pen himself to write a few final words; a few final thoughts on his heart for the Galatian believers. Heavy words about salvation, persecution, boasting, crucifixion, dying to sin, abandoning worldliness, peace and mercy and grace. May we be people who live by this rule, when he says in verse 14, “Far be it from me to boast except in the cross of our Lord Jesus Christ, by which the world has been crucified to me, and I to the world.” May we too have nothing about which we boast — nothing that we get more excited about, nothing that we put more confidence in, nothing that brings us more joy — than the cross of Jesus Christ.

Tuesday

Epistle Project: Ephesians 1:1-14

Today’s passage is a rich catalog of your blessings as a Christian. Paul sums them up by saying that, in Christ, God has blessed you “with every spiritual blessing in the heavenly places.” Don’t miss the weight and glory found in these verses today. Take time to prayerfully meditate on this passage and give thanks to your great God for the truths it contains.

Wednesday

Epistle Project: Ephesians 1:15-23

This passage, in the original Greek, is a single sentence. In it Paul prays that the church will gain a deeper insight in the powerful work of the Lord and the gifts that are in Christ. Read this passage intently and ask the Lord to give you deeper insight, so that you may glorify Him more.

Thursday

Epistle Project: Ephesians 2:1-10

Could there be a more wonderful thing to the believer's heart than to put the cup of the gospel to our lips and drink deeply? To stand at the edge of its wonder and gaze out into its vast beauty, saturated with divine char-acter... the gospel! How precious is the gospel to us!? And what more wonderful place to see clearly the beauty of the gospel than in Ephesians 2:1-10? We were dead, but God made us alive. We were dead in sin. God made us alive together with Christ. This is the wonder of the gospel. When we were hopeless and helpless to save ourselves, God saved us to put the immeasurable riches of his grace on display, now and forever. Our salvation is not our own doing. It is the gift of God. Our works do not earn our salvation, they simply display that we have been saved and are now living accordingly. May we forever be amazed at the wonder of the gospel as we read, study, memorize, and meditate on passages like Ephesians 2:1-10.

Friday

Epistle Project: Ephesians 2:11-22

Without question, racial tension in the U.S. is heating up again. Given our broken history in this area as a nation, and especially as we understand the fallenness of this world, it really is no surprise. For Christians, however, we get the opportunity to show a watching world what God's plan to save people from all nations (Rev. 7:9) looks like in the present. In today's passage, Paul focuses in on Jew/Gentile relationships and teaches us that Christ has "broken down the dividing wall of hostility" (v. 14) that once stood between these two groups. You see, that's exactly what Jesus does for all His people; He tears down the walls that divide them in order to unite them for the praise and glory of His Father. In a world where dividing walls of hostility are so prevalent, the church of the Lord Jesus Christ is the only place to see God's glory reflected in His love for all people. Let's pray that God would continue to use His church to show the world what real reconciliation looks like.

Saturday

Epistle Project: Ephesians 3:1-13

Today's passage begins with "For this reason I, Paul, a prisoner of Christ Jesus on behalf of you Gentiles." Even though Paul had been imprisoned, for preaching to the Gentiles, he knew that he was under Christ's control. Paul knew that everything in his life was in the Lord's hands. Pray and ask the Lord to help you know and to trust, that no matter the circumstance, your life is truly in His hands.
