Proverbs 1:20-33

"An Invitation to be Accepted"

1. In a passage largely about God's justice in dealing with those who reject Him, there is plenty of His grace to consider. As you read through the passage, what are the evidences of His grace?

2. How has God shown His Spirit to be working in you?

3. How has God made His Words known to you?

4. If somebody read this passage and told you that they think God is too harsh, what would you say?

5. Even as a Christian, is there any area of your life in which you are resistant to God's teaching?
