Testimony:

I was raised in a home of loving parents who were Christians and church going to an Episcopalian church in Louisiana. There was right, wrong and honor. At about 4 or 5 I believed in the God as the creator. At about age 12 I was given a Good News New Testament by a godly 1st cousin once removed. I read it. I remembered (1) God loves me and (2) He has a plan for my life. Yet, growing up I never heard that I needed to place my trust in Christ as my Savior & Lord. Or heard it but it didn't register in my mind.

In high school I was all mixed up seeing the obvious sins around me but mostly not partaking as I was a "good boy" outwardly. Inwardly- not at all! I knew from church sin is not only the behavior, it's also in my thoughts and attitudes. That much had sunk into my mind. I went to Oregon State for college on a hunch- a life lesson from poker- but God is sovereign (and sneaky?). I was in a dorm infested with The Navigators! Oh my! They had a rally in the dorm lounge. I went as it should be better than studying. A nervous student gave his testimony. An adult gave a gospel message: whatever. A total stranger came up & asked me what I thought about Christ. I dumped all my doubts about Christ on him. I knew the "party line" from hearing weekly and monthly and thus memorizing the Apostles' & Nicene Creeds. But is it true? He didn't answer my questions but shared 3 verses with me. Rm 3.23 I knew I was a sinner. Jn 1.12 Receiving Christ was necessary to become God's child. Rv 3.20 Will I open the door & ask Him into my life? THE FOG LIFTED! I had the same theological/ Christological questions about Jesus yet now I believed he was The Father's way to Himself. So I prayed to ask Jesus into my life. Not out loud with all those people around. I felt true peace. My repentance was a slow process. I got into a Bible study, started reading the Bible and over about 18 months God was answering my theological questions: ALL the Bible is true- God's Word and not just a religious collection. Christ is the 2nd person of the Trinity. The Transfiguration clinched that one. Later by God's Grace the Holy Spirit's reality came to me.

I'm still following my Savior and Lord- ALL by His mercy and grace.
