

Family Worship
Week of May 15, 2022

Instruction: Whatever time of day works best each day for you or your family, use the prompts below to spend a few minutes together in prayer and the Word. Open and close each session with a simple prayer. Use the questions for meditation or discussion.

God Begins to Save

Monday

- Open in Prayer
- Read: Judges 14:4
- Meditation: Pastor Matt's first point Sunday was "Salvation is entirely of God" What are some ways we're tempted to think we contribute to our salvation?
- Close in Prayer

Tuesday

- Open in Prayer
- Read: Judges 14
- Meditation: Pastor Matt's second point was "Salvation comes in unexpected ways." Christ wasn't who the Jews expected and didn't save the way they expected to be saved. When the work of Christ is applied to each of us, it is sometimes unexpected. In what ways do we underestimate God's saving work in our own lives and the lives of others?
- Close in Prayer

Wednesday

- Open in Prayer
- Read: Judges 14
- Meditation: Pastor Matt's third point on Sunday was "Salvation changes our allegiances." What are some practical ways our allegiances in everyday life are (or should be) different than those who don't know Christ?
- Close in Prayer

Preparing Our Hearts to Receive the Word

Thursday

- Open in Prayer
- Read: Judges 15
- Meditation: What questions do you have about this text? Is there anything confusing or curious? Does anything stand out as important?
- Close in Prayer

Friday

- Open in Prayer
- Read: Judges 15
- Meditation: Westminster Shorter Catechism Question 4 asks, "What do the Scriptures principally teach?" Answer: "The Scriptures principally teach what man is to believe concerning God and what duty God requires of man." What does this passage teach us about God's character and work? What does it teach us about our own hearts and need for a Savior?
