Sermon Meditations: Gods Plan for the Ages

Monday
- Open in Prayer
- Read: Ephesians 3:1-13
- Meditation: Pastor Matt's first point on Sunday was, "God is sovereign and he has a plan." God has a right and the power to rule over all things. He doesn't rule randomly! He has a plan and it is for our good! How is this knowledge a comfort to us?
- Close in Prayer

Tuesday
- Open in Prayer
- Read: Ephesians 3:1-13 (pay special attention to verses 9-10)
- Meditation: Pastor Matt's second point on Sunday was, "God's plan is reconciliation." God is reconciling us to himself and to one another. How is this good news? How does it show God's power and wisdom?
- Close in Prayer

Wednesday
- Open in Prayer
- Read: Ephesians 3:1-13 (pay special attention to verses 1 and 13)
- Meditation: Pastor Matt's last point on Sunday was, "The Church is the revelation of God's wisdom." The Church isn't merely a collection of random individuals, having their individual needs met, but is being built by God for a purpose. How is the Church the revelation of God's wisdom?

Preparing Our Hearts to Receive the Word

Thursday
- Open in Prayer
- Read: Ephesians 3:14-21
- Meditation: What questions do you have about this text? Is there anything confusing or curious? Does anything stand out as important?
- Close in Prayer

Friday
- Open in Prayer
- Read: Ephesians 3:14-21
- Meditation: Westminster Shorter Catechism Question 4 asks, "What do the Scriptures principally teach?" Answer: "The Scriptures principally teach what man is to believe concerning God and what duty God requires of man." What does this passage teach us about God's character and work? What does it teach us about our own hearts and need for a Savior?
- Close in Prayer
