

Resources on the English and Scottish Reformations including resources on the Westminster Assembly

General Church History

1. The Story of Christianity by Justo L. Gonzalez
2 volumes, but available bound together, Prince Press. Probably my favorite single-volume church history
2. Sketches from Church History by SM Houghton

English Reformation History

3. Heretics and Believers by Peter Marshall (Yale)
4. The Reformation in England by J. H. Merle d'Aubigné (2 volumes, Banner of Truth)

English Biographical Resources

1. John Wycliffe: Herald of the Reformation (Heroes of the Faith) by Ellen Caughey
2. The Bible Convictions of John Wycliffe (A Long Line of Godly Men) by Steven J. Lawson
3. Foxe's Book of Martyrs by John Foxe
4. Five English Reformers by JC Ryle
5. The Tudors and the Stuarts edited by Kenneth Morgan
Vol III in The Oxford History of Britain, the Tudors portion is written by John Guy and the Stuart portion by John Morrill

Scottish Reformation History

1. The History of the Reformation in Scotland by John Knox
Banner of Truth has a nice paperback of this: ISBN 978-0-85151-358-4

Scottish Biographical Resources

1. The Scots Worthies by John Howie
a nearly contemporaneous account of the martyrs of the Scottish Reformation – similar to what John Foxe did for the English martyrs
2. John Knox and the Reformation by DM Lloyd Jones and Iain Murray
3. John Knox by Jane Dawson

Westminster Assembly Resources

1. The Confession of Faith: A Critical Text and Introduction by John R. Bower (in the "Principal Documents of the Westminster Assembly" series)
This volume briefly unfolds how the Assembly went about the work of writing a confession of faith. It represents the most up-to-date work on composing a narrative of the history of the Assembly and its work.
2. The Larger Catechism: A Critical Text and Introduction by John R. Bower (in the "Principal Documents of the Westminster Assembly" series)
