

Rico Tice is the Senior Minister (Evangelism) at All Souls, Langham Place in London. Joining in 1994 during the later years of the ministry of John Stott, his main role is to help the hundreds of enquirers about the Christian faith who come through the doors of the church each year. He has also developed the Christianity Explored course, which introduces people to Jesus through studying the Gospel of Mark.

Born in Chile in 1966, to the son of a businessman and a nurse, Rico grew up in Uganda and Zaire. He studied history at Bristol University and trained for ordination at Wycliffe College, Oxford (when he wasn't playing rugby.)

Rico continues to inspire believers to share their faith in Jesus and develop new course material through an active teaching and equipping ministry. In 2011, the 3rd Edition of Christianity Explored was published. Over 10,000 courses per year now run globally across the denominational spectrum in over 90 countries and the material has been translated into more than 20 languages.

September 2016 saw the launch of a new resource from CEM called 'Life Explored', which unpacks sin through the lens of idolatry. It's a series of 7 weeks, with an introductory silent film, that tells a story of somebody chasing an idol. The guests can then reflect on the story, as we move into a walk through the Bible from Genesis 1, week 1 to Revelation 21/22, week 7.

Other than rugby, Rico's hobbies include playing golf and watching films. He married Lucy in December 2008 and they have three young children - Peter, Daniel and Mercy.
