

Hymn of the Month: #159 "O the Deep, Deep Love of Jesus"

Words: Samuel Trevor Francis

Music: "Ebenezer", Welsh hymn tune composed by Thomas John Williams

Echoing the desire in Ephesians 3:17-19 to comprehend "the breadth and length and height and depth" of Christ's surpassing love, Samuel Francis communicates the love he knows so well as a sinner saved by grace. He uses oceanic language to describe these concepts of space (depth, length, and width), as well as direction, writing, "rolling... underneath me, all around me" and "leading onward, leading homeward". The greatest demonstration of this love was Christ's sacrificial, atoning death on behalf of believers (Rom 5:8). While Christ's love cannot even begin to be measured or comprehended in its movement or magnitude, it remains perfect and genuine. Furthermore, it serves as our model for how to love others (1 John 4:19).
