

Hymn of the Month: “My Soul Finds Rest” #359

Words and Music by: Aaron Keys and Stuart Townend

Just as in Psalm 62, on which this hymn is based, the authors paint a picture of God as our Deliverer and Redeemer. God is our salvation from sin, death, trials, temptations, and suffering. He is our steadfast, faithful protection, refuge, hope, strength, and loving Savior. No matter the foe, God will always conquer. Even if He may at times seem silent, He will undoubtedly show Himself to be faithful. That is why we must never forget to continually set our gaze on God alone and trust Him completely, clinging to His enduring promises. Riches will come and go, rulers will rise and fall, and personal circumstances will ebb and flow. Nonetheless, God—our strength and salvation—remains steadfast from eternity to eternity, ready and eager to receive our praise, adoration, and worship.
