

1 Corinthians 15:12-22 “The Resurrected Life”

Main Point: The Apostle Paul refutes an inconsistent belief in the Corinthian church by drawing out the logical conclusions, and the personal implications of the notion, that there is no resurrection, in order to prove the certain truths of it.

Additional Notes:

Key Points of Consideration & Application:

1.) What are some common beliefs and speculations people have concerning what happens after a person dies, and what are those ideas often based upon?

2.) If ideas have consequences, what are the potential consequences of the various views concerning Jesus Christ and Christianity, and why is that so?

3.) What impact do the truths of human history (cultural, religious, political, etc.) have on a person's worldview and faith, and what impact should they have?

Key Passage to Memorize & Meditate Upon: John 6:37-40 (LSB) All that the Father gives Me will come to Me, and the one who comes to Me I will never cast out. ³⁸ For I have come down from heaven, not to do My own will, but the will of Him who sent Me. ³⁹ Now this is the will of Him who sent Me, that of all that He has given Me I lose nothing, but raise it up on the last day. ⁴⁰ For this is the will of My Father, that everyone who sees the Son and believes in Him will have eternal life, and I Myself will raise him up on the last day.”
