

1 Peter 1:17-21 “Fearful, Faithful, & Hopeful”

Main point: Peter continues to call upon his readers to live in light of their great salvation, as he moves on from the applications of holy thinking and conduct, to living a life of godly fear in remembrance of the infinite cost of their redemption.

Additional Notes:

Key Points of Consideration & Application:

1.) What habitual thoughts, desires, words, or actions in my life indicate a biblical fear of God, and which ones may not?

2.) How has the fact of God’s perfect judgement (either His punishment of sin, or His eternal rewards for faithfulness), influenced my perspectives and behaviors in life?

3.) What does the requirement of Christ’s redemption say about humanity, me as an individual, and God the Father’s perspective on people?

Key Passage to Memorize & Meditate Upon: 2 Corinthians 5:9-11 (LSB)

Therefore we also have as our ambition, whether at home or absent, to be pleasing to Him. <sup>10</sup> For we must all appear before the judgment seat of Christ, so that each one may be recompensed for his deeds in the body, according to what he has done, whether good or bad. <sup>11</sup> So then, knowing the fear of the Lord, we persuade men, but we have been made manifest to God; and I hope that we have been made manifest also in your consciences.
