

1 Peter 2:18-20 “Workplace Worship”

Main Point: The Apostle Peter continues his list of commands for his readers to live in light of their calling as the people of God, by moving from the standard of conduct for godly citizens, to the God-glorifying behaviors expected of servants.

Additional Notes:

Key Points of Consideration & Application:

1.) How could living in the fear of God, and an awareness of His presence guide and comfort you throughout your daily activities and interactions with others?

2.) How does suffering rightly under unjust treatment contribute to your spiritual growth?

3.) What God-honoring thoughts and goals help individual believers and church’s faithfully endure suffering and persecution?

Key Passage to Memorize & Meditate Upon: Luke 6:32-35 (LSB) if you love those who love you, what credit is that to you? For even sinners love those who love them.<sup>33</sup> And if you do good to those who do good to you, what credit is that to you? For even sinners do the same.<sup>34</sup> And if you lend to those from whom you expect to receive, what credit is that to you? Even sinners lend to sinners in order to receive back the same amount.<sup>35</sup> But love your enemies, and do good, and lend, expecting nothing in return; and your reward will be great, and you will be sons of the Most High; for He Himself is kind to the ungrateful and evil.
