

Psalm 21 “The King’s Trust”

Main point: In this royal psalm of thanksgiving, David expresses confidence in, and praises Yahweh for His redemption from, victory over, and future judgement upon all of the enemies of His king and people.

I. His Trust in _____

A. Through His _____

B. Through His _____

C. Through His _____

II. His Trust in _____

A. In _____ His _____

B. In _____ His _____

C. In _____ His _____

Additional Notes:

Key Points of Consideration & Application:

1.) Is it appropriate to thank God for, and rejoice in things He hasn’t done yet, and how can you faithfully do it without presuming upon God?

2.) Can a Christian pray imprecatory prayers, or make bold proclamations against God’s enemies, and how can it be done faithfully?

3.) How does a believer balance exercising their faith by trusting in God for help, deliverance, and success, while also being responsible and diligent to plan, work, and seek counsel to make decisions?

Key Passage to Memorize & Meditate Upon: Psalm 16:7-11 (LSB) I will bless Yahweh who has counseled me; Indeed, my mind instructs me in the night.⁸ I have set Yahweh continually before me; Because He is at my right hand, I will not be shaken.⁹ Therefore my heart is glad and my glory rejoices; My flesh also will dwell securely.¹⁰ For You will not forsake my soul to Sheol; You will not give Your Holy One over to see corruption.¹¹ You will make known to me the path of life; In Your presence is fullness of joy; In Your right hand there are pleasures forever.

Sermons to Listen to for Further Study:

Don Green: Thanks for a Great Victory

Will Peterson: Praise After the Battle

