

Psalm 31 “Affirmations for Assurance”

Main point: In this psalm, David affirms himself of both his relationship with Yahweh, as well as His perfections, as he pleads with Him for help, vindication, and redemption from his enemies, and asserts Yahweh’s steadfast love for him.

I. His _____ of _____

A. As his _____

B. As his _____

C. As his _____

D. As his _____

II. His _____ of _____

A. In the _____ of _____

B. In the _____ of _____

C. In the _____ of _____ Additional Notes:

Key Points of Consideration & Application:

1.) Where do I normally go, and what do I often do, when troubles or trials come into my life, and why?

2.) Are there regular affirmations or assertions of God’s character and attributes in my prayers, and if so, which ones?

3.) When I think about God and my current relationship with Him, what works or characteristics of His come to mind, and what response do those thoughts provoke me towards?

Key Passage to Memorize & Meditate Upon: Ps 27:13-14 (LSB) I would have despaired unless I had believed that I would see the goodness of Yahweh in the land of the living. ¹⁴ Hope in Yahweh; be strong and let your heart take courage; Hope in Yahweh.

Sermons to Listen to for Further Study:

Jeremy Walker: God’s Great Goodness

Don Green: Toward a Trusting, Thankful Faith

