

Ruth 1:6-18 “Family, Fidelity, & Faith”

Main point: This second scene of the story begins with a ray of hope shining into the darkest valley of Naomi and Ruth’s life, as they hear of Yahweh’s grace to relieve His people of the famine in Israel, and decisions to return there are made.

I. Naomi’s _____ to _____

A. To her _____

B. To their _____

II. Naomi’s _____ to _____

A. _____ on their _____

B. _____ on their _____

III. Ruth’s _____ to _____

A. In Rejection to _____

B. In Rejection to _____

Additional Notes:

Key Points of Consideration & Application:

1.) Has God ever rectified or redeemed me from consequences of sinful or foolish decisions, and how have those experiences changed my life and relationship with Him?

2.) What circumstances and influences presumably shape a person’s character and life, which ones should not, and which ones have shaped mine?

3.) In what ways does God give, shape, and strengthen someone’s faith in Him?

Key Passage to Memorize & Meditate Upon: Psalm 119:65-68 (LSB) You have dealt well with Your slave, O Yahweh, according to Your word. ⁶⁶ Teach me good discernment and knowledge, for I believe in Your commandments. ⁶⁷ Before I was afflicted I went astray, but now I keep Your word. ⁶⁸ You are good and do good; teach me Your statutes.

Sermons to Listen to for Further Study:

Richard Caldwell Jr: When God
Leads us Home

John Street: Three Amazing Women

