

Ruth 4:1-12 “Redemption Secured”

Main point: In this final act of the story, the writer records the circumstances in which Boaz presents the issue of Naomi and Ruth’s situation in the city gate, in order to settle the matter of the redemption of Elimelech’s inheritance, and Ruth.

I. The _____

A. Boaz _____ for _____

B. Boaz _____ the _____

C. Boaz _____ the _____

II. The _____

A. The _____ of _____

B. The _____ of _____

C. The _____ of _____

Additional Notes:

Key Points of Consideration & Application:

1.) How should we balance the principles and doctrines of human responsibility, diligence, and wisdom, with God’s sovereignty, providence, and provision in our day to day living?

2.) What role does family heritage, community customs and culture play in one’s life and future relationships, and how do they impact our spiritual relationships?

3.) In what ways do the various principles, aspects, and doctrine of redemption influence our lives?

Key Passage to Memorize & Meditate Upon: Psalm 128:1-4 (LSB) How blessed is everyone who fears Yahweh, who walks in His ways. ² When you shall eat of the fruit of the labor of your hands, how blessed will you be and how well will it be for you. ³ Your wife shall be like a fruitful vine in the innermost parts of your house, your children like olive plants all around your table. ⁴ Behold, for thus shall the man be blessed who fears Yahweh.

Sermons to Listen to for Further Study:

Dr. D. Ralph Davis: A Good Day
in Court

Dr. Clint Archer: The Sandal Scandal:
Courtship in the Courts

