

Suggested Interrelationships of the Seals, Trumpets, and Bowls

Judgments are seen as occurring simultaneously, with repetition showing the intensification of the judgments.	7 Seals 7 Trumpets 7 Bowls
The consecutive arrangement envisions a total of 21 judgments, each following directly after the other.	7 Seals → Trumpets → Bowls
This telescopic arrangement has the seventh seal introducing the trumpet series and being explained by it, and the seventh trumpet introduces the bowl series is explained by it. So the seven bowls equal the seventh trumpet, and the seven trumpets are the seventh seal. This is the best view based on the book itself.	The diagram shows a horizontal line for 'Seals' with numbers 1 through 6. From the end of this line, two lines branch out to form a trapezoid labeled '7th Seal' above and 'Trumpets' below. Inside this trapezoid, the numbers 1 through 6 are written. From the right side of the 'Trumpets' line, two more lines branch out to form a second trapezoid labeled '7th Trumpet' above and 'Bowls' below. Inside this second trapezoid, the numbers 1 through 7 are written.
