

SERMON DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

Acts 17:1-15

Sunday, March 4

1. In what ways might you establish new points of contact in your community?
2. What can we learn about expounding the Scriptures from Paul's example in Thessalonica?
3. Take some time to read 1 Thesalonians. What strikes you about what Paul says regarding the 'Thessalonian' heart for the Word? What about Paul's attitude toward the Thessalonians resonates with you?
4. Why do you think some of the Jews were jealous?
5. How does the story of Paul's trip to Thessalonica encourage you? How does it challenge you?
6. What does it mean to live as if "there is another King, Jesus"?
7. How did the Bereans study the Scriptures?
8. What challenges you the most about the Berean approach to God's Word? What might happen if churches today developed the same habits?
9. How does the Berean visit encourage you?
10. In light of these two stories, take a few moments to pray for those who teach in you congregation and for those who hear the Scriptures.

Source: Christ-Centered Exposition Commentary, Merida

SERMON DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

Acts 17:1-15

Sunday, March 4

1. In what ways might you establish new points of contact in your community?
2. What can we learn about expounding the Scriptures from Paul's example in Thessalonica?
3. Take some time to read 1 Thesalonians. What strikes you about what Paul says regarding the 'Thessalonian' heart for the Word? What about Paul's attitude toward the Thessalonians resonates with you?
4. Why do you think some of the Jews were jealous?
5. How does the story of Paul's trip to Thessalonica encourage you? How does it challenge you?
6. What does it mean to live as if "there is another King, Jesus"?
7. How did the Bereans study the Scriptures?
8. What challenges you the most about the Berean approach to God's Word? What might happen if churches today developed the same habits?
9. How does the Berean visit encourage you?
10. In light of these two stories, take a few moments to pray for those who teach in you congregation and for those who hear the Scriptures.

Source: Christ-Centered Exposition Commentary, Merida