

1 Corinthians 10:14 – 11:1

Passage Reflection

This page is meant for individuals, small group Bible studies, or one-on-one interactions. Since learning more about the text's meaning in our corporate gathering, I would encourage you to meditate on the passage again so that you might respond to God in praise and obedience. While I have not answered all of the questions below for you, I've included some of my personal meditations that may be of some benefit. May reflection on this passage be used by God to conform you into the image of Christ.

-Pastor Andrew

What do I learn about God?

God is jealous for our hearts to be loyal to Him. He is also concerned that we protect one another's consciences.

Is there anything for which I should repent based on this text?

Is there any way that I have compromised my loyalty to God by holding onto things that Satan promotes?

How might God use this passage to make me look more like Christ?

As Christ protected His brothers and sisters, I am to protect my brothers and sisters.

How does this passage affect evangelism?

Part of my evangelism involves loving other believers well in front of unbelievers. (John 13:35)

How can I edify the church based on what this passage says?

Seek to protect the consciences of my brothers and sisters.
