1 John 5:13-21
Passage Reflection

This page is meant for individuals, small group Bible studies, or one-on-one interactions. Since learning more about the text's meaning in our corporate gathering, I would encourage you to meditate on the passage again so that you might respond to God in praise and obedience. While I have not answered all of the questions below for you, I've included some of my personal meditations that may be of some benefit. May reflection on this passage be used by God to conform you into the image of Christ.
-Pastor Andrew

What do I learn about God?
God not only wants me assured, but His plan is that I would also be active in praying for and protecting my brothers and sisters as I continue in the truth about Him.

Is there anything for which I should repent based on this text?
Has there been a lack of prayer and concern for my brothers and sisters?

How might God use this passage to make me look more like Christ?
Christ prayed and protected His disciples.

How does this passage affect evangelism?
It is only an accurate understanding of who Jesus is that brings eternal life. It's important that I teach the right Jesus to those I'm evangelizing.

How can I edify the church based on what this passage says?
It is my privilege to be heard by God as I pray and protect my brothers and sisters.
