Thursday: Psalm 119:137-144

“As we read through Psalm 119 and its exposition of the glory of God’s law, we find that the psalmist who wrote this hymn did not always stand with the crowd in his love for the statutes of our Creator. In fact, it is clear that he often faced opposition. His foes smeared his character with lies (vv. 69, 78). Other wicked men persecuted him and sought his death (vv. 86, 95). But in the midst of such pain, the author did not abandon the Lord’s precepts. Though he was “small and despised” in comparison to others, he did not forget the commandments of God (v. 141), as we see in today’s passage.” - Ligonier.org

Friday: Psalm 119:145-160

“The word of God is and from the beginning has been stable, v. 152. We should expect no less; it is the word of God. Our experience confirms this belief. God’s word cannot change because God cannot change” - W. S. Plumer. Praise God for His unchanging character, for His unchanging word.

Saturday: Prayer

Our prayer this week is for the Yavapai Territorial Gospel Rescue Mission. The Mission is a valuable resource in our community that promotes the gospel of Christ. Pray for the continued success of the Mission in caring for those in need and sharing what is needed most, Jesus Christ.

Monday: Psalm 119:105-112

“Rightly understanding and applying divine revelation requires a desire to do what Scripture says. Paul makes this point in 2 Thessalonians 2:9–12 when he writes that the Lord will blind those who refuse to love the truth. Psalm 119:112 makes essentially the same point. The wisdom-granting capacity of God’s Word is realized only in those whom God has regenerated and given a desire to love and serve Him. After all, the psalmist’s praise of Scripture’s ability to grant him wisdom cannot be separated from his inclination to do what our Creator has said “forever, to the end” (v. 112).” - Ligonier.org

Tuesday: Psalm 119:113-120

“I hate the double-minded, but I love your law” (v. 113). Those who are “double-minded” are those who should be devoted to the Lord, but instead, their loyalties are divided. So, first, search your heart for anything that might have your loyalty before the Lord. Then, pray and ask the Lord to help you remove idols that cause you to be “double-minded.”

Wednesday: Psalm 119:121-136

“God revealed His Word in such a way that it can be comprehended with clarity (cf. Psalm 119:105, 130). If He had not done so, the Bible would no longer serve as an objective standard for life, since it could not be understood in a straightforward sense. Yet, because He has revealed His Word in a way that is universally comprehensible, all men are accountable to it.” - John MacArthur
