I delivered to you as of first importance what I also received: that Christ died for our sins in accordance with the Scriptures, that he was buried, that he was raised on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures, and that he appeared to Cephas, then to the twelve. Then he appeared to more than five hundred brothers at one time.

Angels From the Resurrection to Eternity

Selected Scriptures

Monday

Epistle Project: 2 Corinthians 2:5-11

We should all be ready to forgive the sinner. In the context of 2 Cor 5, Paul explains that it may be necessary to discipline someone out of the church who refuses to repent of sin. However, the purpose is never punishment or shame, but rather — reconciliation. As soon as that person repents, he or she should be welcomed back with open arms, and as Paul says to the Corinthians, “forgive and comfort him... I beg you to reaffirm your love for him.” If this is the case in matters as severe as church discipline, certainly this ought to be true in lesser matters. May we all be ready to forgive a repentant sinner, because we know what is like to be a forgiven sinner ourselves.

Tuesday

Epistle Project: 2 Corinthians 2:12-17

Christians living in a fallen world, with the residual effects of the flesh, no doubt experience discouragement. Can any one of us truly say that we do all things for the glory of God? Yet, notice the beautiful jewel of God’s truth found in Paul’s words here; “...we are the aroma of Christ...” A Christian who faithfully lives and preaches the gospel does make an impact. What an encouragement that God uses people like us for His glorious purposes! Ask Him to give you increasing opportunity to be the “aroma of Christ” in your world.

Wednesday

Epistle Project: 2 Corinthians 3:1-18

In verse 6 Paul writes that it is God "who has made us sufficient to be ministers of a new covenant." Just before this Paul makes it clear we are not "sufficient in ourselves to claim anything as coming from us." Paul realized that it is only God that can make a person adequate to do His work. As you pray and seek to do God's work, thank Him that for this truth. Thank Him that your sufficiency comes from Him and is in Him.

Thursday

Epistle Project: 2 Corinthians 4:1-6

How did you get saved? From your human perspective, there are probably many factors that added up to the moment you believed the gospel. However, it's also good for us to consider God's perspective of our salvation. According to 2 Cor 4, before we believed the gospel, it was because Satan had blinded our minds to keep us from seeing the light of the gospel (v4). Then verse 6 paints a glorious picture of our salvation: "God, who said, "Let light shine out of darkness," has shone in our hearts to give the light of the knowledge of the glory of God in the face of Jesus Christ." The same God who created life and light in Genesis, created a saving life and light in our hearts.

Friday

Epistle Project: 2 Corinthians 4:7-18

We all know that weakness, in the world's eyes, is looked down upon. We're taught that we can do anything we set our minds to and that we should never show weakness. This, however, could not be further from the truth. The Bible teaches us that Christians are weak for a reason: so that everyone, including ourselves, would know that we have no power in ourselves, but all power belongs to God. Dear Christian, see your weakness, in every aspect, as a good thing. See it as an opportunity for all, including you, to know that anything good that comes from you does not originate with you. It comes, in fact, from God. We are simply jars of clay designed to hold invaluable treasure.

Saturday

Epistle Project: 2 Corinthians 5:1-10

As Christians we rejoice that one day we will be "at home with the Lord." There is great comfort in knowing that when we are away from the body we will be present with the Lord. Knowing this we are always to be "of good courage" and to "make it our aim to please him." Pray and ask the Lord to help you to always be of "good courage" and to make it your aim, in all that you do, to please the Lord.
