Women's Bible Study

While Women's Ministry has no formal meetings until Fall, there are many informal groups of ladies gathering together, so feel free to ask around. If you have questions about Women's Ministry at Canyon, please contact Kristy Tracy by phone at (907) 232-3743 or email at kristytracy@gmail.com.

Leadership Training

The elders want to be sure that the leaders of our church are trained in some specific ministry areas for the upcoming ministry year. We are planning leadership training that is mandatory for those planning on leading a small group, discipleship group, women's ministry table, serving in student ministry, or teaching in Children's Ministry. However, anyone interested in this training is welcome to attend. The same training will be held on Sunday, August 5th and Sunday, August 12th for you to choose which training you would like to attend. Meeting times will be 2-6:30 p.m. Please, R.S.V.P. to admin@canyonprescott.org.

Hire-a-Teen Scholarship Program

As you know, Camp Regen is quickly approaching and this year we wanted to give students an opportunity to earn scholarship money toward camp to help offset the cost. The plan is to connect students to some work that you may have around your home so that they can earn money toward camp. If you have any work that you would like to "hire-a-teen" to do, please email Will at wpeterson@canyonprescott.org and let him know what work you have, how many students you would like to hire, and how much you are willing to contribute to their scholarship fund.

SERMON APPLICATION

Take time to answer the following application questions from Sunday's sermon:

Are there examples to follow?

Commands to obey?

Errors to avoid?

Sins to forsake?

Promises to claim?

Thoughts about God?

Principles to live by?

OUTREACH PRAYER

This week pray for the Yavapai Territorial Gospel Rescue Mission. Recently a resident at the Mission has confessed faith in Christ. Pray for this new believer and that her testimony would be used in a way that others in her family would be saved. Praise the Lord for this ministry in our community.

Book of the Month: Just Do Something

by Kevin DeYoung

"I'm concerned that in the lives of too many Christians mysticism has replaced biblical thinking as the basis for decision-making and trying to decipher the will of God. The subtitle alone is a reason to read the book. It reads, 'How to make a decision without dreams, visions, fleeces, impressions, open doors, random Bible verses, casting lots, liver shivers, writing in the sky, etc.'"

WEDNESDAY

Epistle Project: Colossians 3:1-17

At the beginning of this passage, a clear contrast is given and what our response is to be as Christians: “Set your minds on things that are above, not on things that are on earth,” (v. 2). The mind is either set on the things of the world or it is set on the pursuit of a deeper knowledge of Christ. For the believer, the mind must be set on Christ and all that belongs to living for Him. The believer is to live in a way worthy of His name (Col. 1:10). Christians are to seek His kingdom first (Matt. 6:33). As Paul instructs the Colossians, he instructs us, to live in a manner that is pleasing to the Lord. Pray and ask the Lord to search your heart and to reveal areas where you are not living in a way that is pleasing to Him. Confess these things to Him knowing that “If we confess our sins, he is faithful and just to forgive us our sins and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness,” (1 Jn. 1:9).

THURSDAY

Epistle Project: Colossians 3:18-4:1

In all our roles in life, the scripture gives us clear and helpful guidance. Far too often, we do not live rightly simply because we do not go to the scripture for help. God has given us the true knowledge of his son in Scripture so that we would have “everything you need for life and godliness.” In all your roles, look to scripture. Living by faith simply means hearing what God says, trusting that what he says is best, and living according to what he says. In Colossians 3, wives, husbands, children, fathers, employees (bondservants), and bosses (masters) all receive very clear, uncomplicated instructions. The Father’s loving heart has given us helpful instruction. As we read these verses, let us meditate on our roles in life, and ask him how he would have us obey these verses. May we be quick to trust him and live by faith.

FRIDAY

Epistle Project: Colossians 4:2-6

It is estimated that the average person speaks over 15,000 words every day. That’s a lot of words! This emphasizes the importance of communication and especially how we use those 15,000+ words. In today’s passage, Paul is highlighting our speech. Our speaking to God in prayer must be continual and we must ask for opportunities to make the gospel clear. When speaking to others, our speech must always be wise and gracious. Let’s use those 15,000+ words for the glory of the Lord Jesus Christ!

SATURDAY

Epistle Project: Colossians 4:7-18

“Tychicus will tell you all about my activities. He is a beloved brother and faithful minister and fellow servant in the Lord,” (Col 4:7). Tychicus was a brother, a minister, and a servant. In these things, he was beloved, faithful, and a fellow. In one sentence we are given a beautiful picture of this believer and a clear example to follow. Pray and ask the Lord to give you a heart like Tychicus. Ask Him to shape your heart’s desire to be a faithful and fellow servant.
