

We are thankful that you are taking steps to welcome someone from our counseling ministry into your life. We know that it is not easy to step out in faith and ask for help. We pray that God will work through His Word to give you hope and that you will be conformed to the image of Jesus Christ.

The next step is to complete our intake forms. These forms are designed to acquire as much information as possible in order to give your counselor information about you, your context, and your history. These forms will take approximately 45 minutes to complete.

In addition to completing these forms, we ask that you:

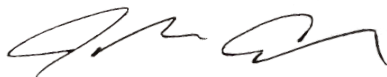

- 1) Regularly attend the Sunday morning worship service at Canyon Bible Church
- 2) If not already, become members of and participate in small groups
- 3) Maintain counseling appointments

Our goal in the counseling process will be to orient your heart towards God in your particular situation. We believe that all of life flows from this relationship with Christ. Our intention is not to change a difficult situation behavior. Instead, through the identification and implementation of biblical principles, we will seek to partner with you to help you become a more committed follower of Jesus Christ in every area of your life(Galatians 6:1-3; 1 Thessalonians 5:14).

We ask that you complete the personal data inventory and waivers and return them to our church office. You will be contacted by counselor to set up an initial appointment.

Please contact me if you have any questions regarding the counseling process.

Thank you,

Joshua Arellano
