Affirmation of Member Commitment

I will be diligent to exercise self-control so that my lifestyle exhibits both true Christian love and personal holiness.

I will faithfully assemble with this body of believers, striving to maintain unity, and doing all I can to stimulate love and good deeds in others as I seek to exercise my spiritual gifts in faithful service.

I will consistently contribute, as a good steward of God's blessings, such time, talent, and resources, in the measure that God prospers me, so that the local and worldwide ministry of spreading the gospel may continue.

I will teach biblical truth to my family and acquaintances, as God gives me opportunity, with a desire to see them come to trust Jesus Christ and be saved.

I will always be willing to both give and receive admonition and instruction with meekness and in love.

I will commit to praying for the ministry here in this church, my brothers and sisters in Christ, the elders, pastors, and deacons; and for the lost who need the Savior.

I will, with the aid of the Holy Spirit, seek to love, encourage, teach, admonish, comfort, and exhort other members, with a genuine desire to see each one grow in the knowledge of Christ and His Word.

Book of the Month

The Bruised Reed
by Richard Sibbes

"You will find, I think, in general that the Puritans are almost invariably helpful...I shall never cease to be grateful to one of them called Richard Sibbes who was balm to my soul at a period in my life when I was overworked and badly overtired, and therefore subject in an unusual manner to the onslaughts of the devil. In that state and condition...what you need is some gentle, tender treatment for your soul. I found at that time that Richard Sibbes, who was known in London in the early seventeenth century as 'the heavenly Doctor Sibbes,' was an unfailing remedy. His books The Bruised Reed and The Soul's Conflict quietened, soothed, comforted, encouraged and healed me."

- Dr. Martyn Lloyd Jones

Weekly Resource

"Seven Prayers for Those You Love
by Marshall Segal

"What do you pray most often for the people you love most? The question reveals an uncomfortable amount about us (and our prayers). First, do we pray for those we love? Prayer is one of the most powerful, thoughtful, loving ways we can love anyone we love. Yet we still often struggle to persevere in prayer for others. With countless compelling reasons to pray — to ask the God of infinite power, wisdom, and love to move in the lives of our friends, family, and neighbors — we find a thousand excuses not to. What some of us need to hear most is simply a reminder to stop and pray for the ones we love."

Outreach Prayer
Yavapai Territorial Gospel Rescue Mission

Join us in praising God for YTGRM. We are grateful for a ministry that aims to provide physical needs for the lost and hurting with the goal of reaching them with the Gospel.

Join us also in praying for YTGRM. Pray for the volunteers to perservere in all they do. Pray for any guests who have come in and will be coming. Pray that they would find the hope and answers that they are seeking. Pray for staff to be excited and motivated for the various tasks to accomplish. Pray that they would find encouragement and incentive to serve that comes from the love that God has for them.

1 John 5:13-21

"Now What? Living Life as an Assured Child of God"

What do I learn about God?

Is there anything for which I should repent based on this text?

How might God use this passage to make me look more like Christ?

How does this passage affect evangelism?

How can I edify the church based on what this passage says?
