

Affirmation of Member Commitment

I will be diligent to exercise self-control so that my lifestyle exhibits both true Christian love and personal holiness.

I will faithfully assemble with this body of believers, striving to maintain unity, and doing all I can to stimulate love and good deeds in others as I seek to exercise my spiritual gifts in faithful service.

I will consistently contribute, as a good steward of God's blessings, such time, talent, and resources, in the measure that God prospers me, so that the local and worldwide ministry of spreading the gospel may continue.

I will teach biblical truth to my family and acquaintances, as God gives me opportunity, with a desire to see them come to trust Jesus Christ and be saved.

I will always be willing to both give and receive admonition and instruction with meekness and in love.

I will commit to praying for the ministry here in this church, my brothers and sisters in Christ, the elders, pastors, and deacons; and for the lost who need the Savior.

I will, with the aid of the Holy Spirit, seek to love, encourage, teach, admonish, comfort, and exhort other members, with a genuine desire to see each one grow in the knowledge of Christ and His Word.

The Bruised Reed

Book of the Month

The Bruised Reed
by Richard Sibbes

"You will find, I think, in general that the Puritans are almost invariably helpful...I shall never cease to be grateful to one of them called Richard Sibbes who was balm to my soul at a period in my life when I was overworked and badly overtired, and therefore subject in an unusual manner to the onslaughts of the devil. In that state and condition...what you need is some gentle, tender treatment for your soul. I found at that time that Richard Sibbes, who was known in London in the early seventeenth century as 'the heavenly Doctor Sibbes,' was an unfailing remedy. His books The Bruised Reed and The Soul's Conflict quietened, soothed, comforted, encouraged and healed me."

- Dr. Martyn Lloyd Jones

Weekly Resource

"Christian, You Are Able Not to Sin"
by Zach Howard

"As Christians we can live in hope — hope that God's grace is sufficient for our fight against sin, hope that the Spirit is renewing us and restoring our ability to fight sin day by day, and finally, hope that we will one day be completely remade. It is Christ's ability that is behind each of those hopes. He conquered sin and death to rescue us. He sent his Spirit to redeem us. And he will return again to fully restore us. Our great hope is not in our ability but in Christ's ability."

Outreach Prayer
The Standridge Family
Rome, Italy

Join us in praising the Lord for the Standridge family and the church plant that Jordan is pastoring. We are grateful for a church that seeks to bring the true Gospel to the place where the Roman Catholic Church is centered. We also are grateful for various outreach opportunities that have cultivated relationships.

Please be in prayer for the continued efforts to bring the Gospel to the people that Jordan, his family, and his church have made connections with. Pray for wisdom for the various evangelistic efforts they are part of. Pray that those being evangelized would have their eyes opened to the saving message of Jesus Christ. Finally, pray for wisdom for Jordan and his co-elder, Marco, as they strive to lead their church well.
