

Affirmation of Member Commitment

I will be diligent to exercise self-control so that my lifestyle exhibits both true Christian love and personal holiness.

I will faithfully assemble with this body of believers, striving to maintain unity, and doing all I can to stimulate love and good deeds in others as I seek to exercise my spiritual gifts in faithful service.

I will consistently contribute, as a good steward of God's blessings, such time, talent, and resources, in the measure that God prospers me, so that the local and worldwide ministry of spreading the gospel may continue.

I will teach biblical truth to my family and acquaintances, as God gives me opportunity, with a desire to see them come to trust Jesus Christ and be saved.

I will always be willing to both give and receive admonition and instruction with meekness and in love.

I will commit to praying for the ministry here in this church, my brothers and sisters in Christ, the elders, pastors, and deacons; and for the lost who need the Savior.

I will, with the aid of the Holy Spirit, seek to love, encourage, teach, admonish, comfort, and exhort other members, with a genuine desire to see each one grow in the knowledge of Christ and His Word.

Book of the Month

O Come, O Come, Emmanuel
by Jonathan Gibson

"Gibson's devotional books guide the reader through prayers and readings of adoration, confession, assurance of pardon, and petition. 'O Come, O Come Emmanuel' is the newest book which is intended to be used during the Christmas season. I have found Gibson's books a great aid in giving vent to my heart as I read through these daily devotionals."

Weekly Resource

"The Sound Witness of An Ordinary Life"
by Matt Ng

"A life that demonstrates goodness and lovingkindness toward unbelievers directly reflects the goodness and lovingkindness God demonstrated toward us in the Gospel (vv. 4-7). It is God's goodwill toward mankind in sending His Son to accomplish the work of salvation that we endeavor to picture every day in our conduct toward unbelievers. As those who have experienced the grace of God firsthand, we are compelled to live and speak the truth that 'He saved us, not because of works done by us in righteousness, but according to his own mercy.' This is the hope of eternal life that we can lead others to have as well—a confidence that Jesus, the very grace of God that appeared and brought salvation for all people, will appear again in glory."

Outreach Prayer

Community Pregnancy Center
Prescott, Arizona

Join us in praising God for CPC. We are grateful that the Lord has provided a ministry that cares for women and children, saves babies from abortion, and offers the hope of the Gospel to people in very difficult situations. Praise God that the 2023 Banquet fundraiser on October 17th was a great success. The donations given exceeded their goal!

Join us in praying on behalf of CPC. Pray that the financial blessing would translate into meaningful blessing for the women and children under CPC's care. Pray that the physical, mental, and emotional needs would continue to be met. Most importantly, pray that spiritual needs would be met. Pray that those who come to CPC would hear the gospel, believe it, and receive the hope and the life that is found in Jesus Christ.

Student Ministry Bake-Off

6:30 p.m. - 8:30 p.m.

We will be celebrating our second annual Canyon Bake-Off at the Doak home. Students are encouraged to come with their best HOME-MADE dessert and submit them in one of three categories: best taste, best looking, and best gluten free. Our staff will judge all entries. The best desserts will win a prize, trophy, and (sanctified) bragging rights until next year!

1 John 2:3-14

"Who Knows God? Who Doesn't?"

What do I learn about God?

Is there anything for which I should repent based on this text?

How might God use this passage to make me look more like Christ?

How does this passage affect evangelism?

How can I edify the church based on what this passage says?
