

Affirmation of Member Commitment

I will be diligent to exercise self-control so that my lifestyle exhibits both true Christian love and personal holiness.

I will faithfully assemble with this body of believers, striving to maintain unity, and doing all I can to stimulate love and good deeds in others as I seek to exercise my spiritual gifts in faithful service.

I will consistently contribute, as a good steward of God's blessings, such time, talent, and resources, in the measure that God prospers me, so that the local and worldwide ministry of spreading the gospel may continue.

I will teach biblical truth to my family and acquaintances, as God gives me opportunity, with a desire to see them come to trust Jesus Christ and be saved.

I will always be willing to both give and receive admonition and instruction with meekness and in love.

I will commit to praying for the ministry here in this church, my brothers and sisters in Christ, the elders, pastors, and deacons; and for the lost who need the Savior.

I will, with the aid of the Holy Spirit, seek to love, encourage, teach, admonish, comfort, and exhort other members, with a genuine desire to see each one grow in the knowledge of Christ and His Word.

Book of the Month

Remade
by Paul Tautges

"In Remade, Paul Tautges uses 90 meditations to help Christians understand their complete identity in Christ. We are saints who are completely accepted by God. But we are also people who struggle with sin and must fight temptation to sin. Lastly, we are sufferers who endure hardship.

Grasping this biblical truth helps center our thoughts on Christ as we live each day."

- Pastor Josh

Weekly Resource

"Worse Than Any Affliction: Why I Refuse to Grumble"
by Joni Eareckson Tada

"A complaining spirit weakens our confidence in God's promises. Psalm 106:24–25 says, "Then they despised the pleasant land, having no faith in his promise. They murmured in their tents, and did not obey the voice of the Lord." The Christian who wallows in complaining is tempted to believe that God might leave him, that God isn't always helpful in times of trouble, or that divine grace is lacking for every need. He's increasingly suspicious whether God's word is always trustworthy. He feels that suffering is not worth what little eternal benefit it earns (Hebrews 13:5; Psalm 46:1; 2 Corinthians 12:9; Psalm 62:8; 2 Corinthians 4:17)."

Outreach Prayer
 The Standridge Family
 Rome, Italy

Join us in praising the Lord for the Standridge family and the church plant that Jordan is pastoring. We are grateful for a church that seeks to bring the true Gospel to the place where the Roman Catholic Church is centered. We also are grateful for various outreach opportunities that have cultivated relationships, which includes a recent profession of faith!

Please be in prayer for the continued efforts to bring the Gospel to the people that Jordan, his family, and his church have made connections with. Pray for wisdom for the various evangelistic efforts they are part of. Pray that those being evangelized would have their eyes opened to the saving message of Jesus Christ. Pray that Jordan would give wise care and counsel to the people in his church. Finally, pray for wisdom for Jordan and his co-elder, Marco, as they strive to lead their church well.
