

Affirmation of Member Commitment

I will be diligent to exercise self-control so that my lifestyle exhibits both true Christian love and personal holiness.

I will faithfully assemble with this body of believers, striving to maintain unity, and doing all I can to stimulate love and good deeds in others as I seek to exercise my spiritual gifts in faithful service.

I will consistently contribute, as a good steward of God's blessings, such time, talent, and resources, in the measure that God prospers me, so that the local and worldwide ministry of spreading the gospel may continue.

I will teach biblical truth to my family and acquaintances, as God gives me opportunity, with a desire to see them come to trust Jesus Christ and be saved.

I will always be willing to both give and receive admonition and instruction with meekness and in love.

I will commit to praying for the ministry here in this church, my brothers and sisters in Christ, the elders, pastors, and deacons; and for the lost who need the Savior.

I will, with the aid of the Holy Spirit, seek to love, encourage, teach, admonish, comfort, and exhort other members, with a genuine desire to see each one grow in the knowledge of Christ and His Word.

Book of the Month

All That Jesus Commanded
by John Piper

"The four Gospels are filled with commands straight from the mouth of Jesus Christ. They are not the harsh demands of a taskmaster, but Jesus's way of showing his followers who he is and how to be more like him."

In All That Jesus Commanded, John Piper walks through Jesus's commands, in fifty short chapters, explaining their context and meaning to help readers understand Christ's vision of the Christian life and what he still requires today. The result is a helpful guide for thoughtful inquirers and new Christians, as well as veteran believers, whether for their own study or as a resource in disciple-making." - Crossway

Weekly Resource

"Still on the Throne: The Glories of a Seated Christ"
by David Mathis

"In moments when rough waves rock the boat of our Christian lives, an otherwise near-platitude can be a welcome reminder. Our God is sovereign. Whatever befalls his people has been lovingly sifted through his fingers. Our trials and troubles are no evidence of his abdication or defeat, but of his astounding patience and mysterious timing.

What it means that he's still on the throne may remain vague and distant. Yet we might take some real solace in the general reminder of his reign."

Outreach Prayer
 El Camino Bible Church
 Chinandega, Nicaragua

Join us in praising God for Pastor Frank, his family, and his church. We are grateful for a group of godly people who aim to bring the Good News to Chinandega. We are also praising God for safe travels as well as great encouragement as Frank and his wife were able to come to the U.S. for a conference and other fellowship.

Please also be in prayer for our brothers and sisters in Christ. Pray that the preached word would result in substantial spiritual growth. Pray that the elders of this church would continue to be unified as they seek to minister. Pray that there would be successful inroads to reach more people with the Gospel. Finally, pray for the small group of men who are being trained by Pastor Frank for leadership.
