

Affirmation of Member Commitment

I will be diligent to exercise self-control so that my lifestyle exhibits both true Christian love and personal holiness.

I will faithfully assemble with this body of believers, striving to maintain unity, and doing all I can to stimulate love and good deeds in others as I seek to exercise my spiritual gifts in faithful service.

I will consistently contribute, as a good steward of God's blessings, such time, talent, and resources, in the measure that God prospers me, so that the local and worldwide ministry of spreading the gospel may continue.

I will teach biblical truth to my family and acquaintances, as God gives me opportunity, with a desire to see them come to trust Jesus Christ and be saved.

I will always be willing to both give and receive admonition and instruction with meekness and in love.

I will commit to praying for the ministry here in this church, my brothers and sisters in Christ, the elders, pastors, and deacons; and for the lost who need the Savior.

I will, with the aid of the Holy Spirit, seek to love, encourage, teach, admonish, comfort, and exhort other members, with a genuine desire to see each one grow in the knowledge of Christ and His Word.

Book of the Month

All That Jesus Commanded

by John Piper

"The four Gospels are filled with commands straight from the mouth of Jesus Christ. They are not the harsh demands of a taskmaster, but Jesus's way of showing his followers who he is and how to be more like him.

In All That Jesus Commanded, John Piper walks through Jesus's commands, in fifty short chapters, explaining their context and meaning to help readers understand Christ's vision of the Christian life and what he still requires today. The result is a helpful guide for thoughtful inquirers and new Christians, as well as veteran believers, whether for their own study or as a resource in disciple-making." - Crossway

"The Greatest Joy Is Still to Come"

by David Mathis

"Yes, God commands that we be happy in him, and he stands behind it with his omnipotent help. But no, we are never fully happy. Not utterly. Not yet. Not as long as we remain in these bodies of sin, in this world of suffering, with an Enemy and his armies plotting against us. And not as long as we're still yet to see Jesus face to face. There is no fullness of joy without the fullness of Jesus.

Only in God's presence is there fullness of joy (Psalm 16:11) — and we're not yet in his presence. Only at his right hand — where Jesus sits enthroned as the divine-human sovereign over all the universe — do we have pleasures evermore. Here we have tastes, by his Spirit and through faith — at times great tastes — but we're not yet seated at the banquet of new creation with plates piled high in his presence."

Outreach Prayer
Indian Bible College
Flagstaff, Arizona

Join us in praising God for IBC. God is good and gracious in providing a school that is biblically-rooted and gospel-centered in its education for students who desire to bring the message of Jesus Christ to Native Americans. Praise God for the continued provision of funds, staffing, students, and spiritual growth in and through IBC.

Please join us in prayer for IBC. Ten students and staff members will be heading to various churches several states in the Northwest for 65th anniversary celebration events. Pray that the team would travel safely, these churches would be encouraged, and that these events would result in more support / future students for IBC. Finally, please be in prayer for continued growth both spiritually and academically for the students of IBC.
