

Affirmation of Member Commitment

I will be diligent to exercise self-control so that my lifestyle exhibits both true Christian love and personal holiness.

I will faithfully assemble with this body of believers, striving to maintain unity, and doing all I can to stimulate love and good deeds in others as I seek to exercise my spiritual gifts in faithful service.

I will consistently contribute, as a good steward of God's blessings, such time, talent, and resources, in the measure that God prospers me, so that the local and worldwide ministry of spreading the gospel may continue.

I will teach biblical truth to my family and acquaintances, as God gives me opportunity, with a desire to see them come to trust Jesus Christ and be saved.

I will always be willing to both give and receive admonition and instruction with meekness and in love.

I will commit to praying for the ministry here in this church, my brothers and sisters in Christ, the elders, pastors, and deacons; and for the lost who need the Savior.

I will, with the aid of the Holy Spirit, seek to love, encourage, teach, admonish, comfort, and exhort other members, with a genuine desire to see each one grow in the knowledge of Christ and His Word.

Book of the Month

All That Jesus Commanded
by John Piper

"The four Gospels are filled with commands straight from the mouth of Jesus Christ. They are not the harsh demands of a taskmaster, but Jesus's way of showing his followers who he is and how to be more like him.

In All That Jesus Commanded, John Piper walks through Jesus's commands, in fifty short chapters, explaining their context and meaning to help readers understand Christ's vision of the Christian life and what he still requires today. The result is a helpful guide for thoughtful inquirers and new Christians, as well as veteran believers, whether for their own study or as a resource in disciple-making." - Crossway

Weekly Resource

"The Christian's Hope Isn't Complete without a Resurrection"
by Mitchell L. Chase

"Believers need to have incredible hope in the hard world that we live in. And because of the Genesis 3 context, we are in a broken and fractured creation. We sense this inwardly with our sin. We sense this outwardly with temptations and snares. We notice the suffering and brokenness all around the world.

We need to be people of great hope in this broken world, and that means our hope shaped by the Scriptures must involve a resurrection concept. In a world full of broken bodies and suffering people, God is going to bring redemption and blessing to such a degree that resurrection from the dead is part of our consummation. The future will be bodily glory. Our future will be bodily life. And therefore, Christians have this kind of hope to help them persevere."

Outreach Prayer

The Standridge Family
Rome, Italy

Join us in praising God for the Standridge family and their ministry in Rome. The Standridges were recently able to visit the United States. During this time, they were able to see family, fellowship with a church in San Diego, go to Disneyland and Legoland, and Jordan was able to attend Shepherds Conference. We are also praising God for fruit in the ministry back in Rome. A new couple has joined their church, and many visitors have been attending in the past few weeks.

Please join us in praying for the Standridge family and their church. Pray for a man named Gianluca, who was attending for some time, but has since left to go back to the Roman Catholic Church. Pray for the various visitors who attend on Sundays. Pray for an upcoming English camp, that many kids would attend and hear the Gospel. Finally, pray for an upcoming conference Jordan and their planting church, Berea, are holding. They are looking to encourage one another as well as spend time praying for future church plants in the area.
