

Affirmation of Member Commitment

I will be diligent to exercise self-control so that my lifestyle exhibits both true Christian love and personal holiness.

I will faithfully assemble with this body of believers, striving to maintain unity, and doing all I can to stimulate love and good deeds in others as I seek to exercise my spiritual gifts in faithful service.

I will consistently contribute, as a good steward of God's blessings, such time, talent, and resources, in the measure that God prospers me, so that the local and worldwide ministry of spreading the gospel may continue.

I will teach biblical truth to my family and acquaintances, as God gives me opportunity, with a desire to see them come to trust Jesus Christ and be saved.

I will always be willing to both give and receive admonition and instruction with meekness and in love.

I will commit to praying for the ministry here in this church, my brothers and sisters in Christ, the elders, pastors, and deacons; and for the lost who need the Savior.

I will, with the aid of the Holy Spirit, seek to love, encourage, teach, admonish, comfort, and exhort other members, with a genuine desire to see each one grow in the knowledge of Christ and His Word.

"The Gospel, Grumbling, and Growth"
by Paul Levy

"Driving the priorities of God's word into a congregation's life and structure is hard and difficult work and tragically hasn't often been done. There is a difference between a gospel preaching pulpit and a gospel preaching church, it is a wonderful thing when that distinction is eradicated but it is only done by the back breaking work of applying that gospel into church life.

As the gospel is at work in a congregation, there will ordinarily be growth and development and that will mean inevitable changes need to take place. A refusal to make those changes there will result in a blockage to growth and this will increasingly provide a focus for complaint and division. What the apostles are doing here in these verses is forcing the principles of the gospel firmly into the centre of the church's life. They are making the church see that eternal issues must be the priority, not temporal ones. It is not right to have it the other way round. They are saying we will not give up gospel proclamation to focus on another kind of ministry."

Outreach Prayer

The church in Chinandega, Nicaragua

Join us in praising God for Pastor Frank, his family, and the church he pastors! We are grateful that the Lord has established a faithful church in an area that is otherwise dominated with Roman Catholicism and paganism. We are grateful for the continued support, growth, and evangelistic opportunities that God has blessed our brothers and sisters in Chinandega with.

Please also be in prayer for this church. Pray that the Lord would continue to strengthen Pastor Frank and the church to be steadfast in their hope in the Gospel. Pray for the physical, mental, and spiritual health of each of our brothers and sisters. Pray for each of the men that Pastor Frank is training for leadership. Pray for this church's overall safety as they aim to forward the Gospel.
