

Affirmation of Member Commitment

I will be diligent to exercise self-control so that my lifestyle exhibits both true Christian love and personal holiness.

I will faithfully assemble with this body of believers, striving to maintain unity, and doing all I can to stimulate love and good deeds in others as I seek to exercise my spiritual gifts in faithful service.

I will consistently contribute, as a good steward of God's blessings, such time, talent, and resources, in the measure that God prospers me, so that the local and worldwide ministry of spreading the gospel may continue.

I will teach biblical truth to my family and acquaintances, as God gives me opportunity, with a desire to see them come to trust Jesus Christ and be saved.

I will always be willing to both give and receive admonition and instruction with meekness and in love.

I will commit to praying for the ministry here in this church, my brothers and sisters in Christ, the elders, pastors, and deacons; and for the lost who need the Savior.

I will, with the aid of the Holy Spirit, seek to love, encourage, teach, admonish, comfort, and exhort other members, with a genuine desire to see each one grow in the knowledge of Christ and His Word.

Book of the Month

Untangling Emotions

by J. Alasdair Groves and Winston T. Smith

“The Bible teaches us that our emotions are an indispensable part of what makes us human—and play a crucial role in our relationships with God and others. Exploring how God designed emotions for our good, this book shows us how to properly engage with our emotions—even the more difficult ones like fear, anger, shame, guilt, and sorrow—so we can better understand what they reveal about our hearts and handle them wisely in everyday moments.”

"There Is Still Great Opportunity to Serve Jesus, After Age 70 and Beyond"

by Randy Alcorn

"I love to be around older people—that is, older people who have sweetened with age, not those who have soured. Choose which you'd rather be. (And since I'm turning 70 this year, I guess I'm an "older person" too, though I feel no need or desire to retire. I'm as excited about ministry as I've ever been, so I'll trust God to make it clear when I need to start cutting back.)

As you grow older, you can be one of those godly older saints people love to be around. The more you've walked with the Lord, the more you'll have to offer your children, grandchildren, great grandchildren, friends, neighbors, and church family. Remember, if God didn't have a purpose for you here, you wouldn't be here. (As I've written previously, those who've retired from jobs still have great opportunity to serve God in the next season of life. Even if you're unable to physically serve, your prayers, giving, and influence can have eternal impact.)"

Outreach Prayer
Indian Bible College
Flagstaff, Arizona

Join us in praising God for IBC and the ministry that they do. We are grateful for a college that seeks to equip people to take the message of Jesus to Native America and beyond. Praise God for His providence over IBC as they celebrate 65 years of existence. Praise God that IBC has received accreditation status and that students will greatly benefit from this. Thank the Lord that IBC is able to serve others, not only in northern Arizona, but in different places around the world.

Please also be in prayer for IBC. Pray for students who have just finished this semester, that the various ministries they do over the summer would be fruitful, that God would protect them, and that these students would be refreshed and ready for more school in the fall. Pray for the team that will be heading to France as they seek to reach out to people there with the Gospel. Pray for Daniel Esplin as he travels to various locations to recruit students. Pray that IBC reaches the goal of 12 incoming students for the coming fall semester.
