

Affirmation of Member Commitment

I will be diligent to exercise self-control so that my lifestyle exhibits both true Christian love and personal holiness.

I will faithfully assemble with this body of believers, striving to maintain unity, and doing all I can to stimulate love and good deeds in others as I seek to exercise my spiritual gifts in faithful service.

I will consistently contribute, as a good steward of God's blessings, such time, talent, and resources, in the measure that God prospers me, so that the local and worldwide ministry of spreading the gospel may continue.

I will teach biblical truth to my family and acquaintances, as God gives me opportunity, with a desire to see them come to trust Jesus Christ and be saved.

I will always be willing to both give and receive admonition and instruction with meekness and in love.

I will commit to praying for the ministry here in this church, my brothers and sisters in Christ, the elders, pastors, and deacons; and for the lost who need the Savior.

I will, with the aid of the Holy Spirit, seek to love, encourage, teach, admonish, comfort, and exhort other members, with a genuine desire to see each one grow in the knowledge of Christ and His Word.

Untangling Emotions

by J. Alasdair Groves and Winston T. Smith

“The Bible teaches us that our emotions are an indispensable part of what makes us human—and play a crucial role in our relationships with God and others. Exploring how God designed emotions for our good, this book shows us how to properly engage with our emotions—even the more difficult ones like fear, anger, shame, guilt, and sorrow—so we can better understand what they reveal about our hearts and handle them wisely in everyday moments.”

"8 Ways God Works Our Suffering for Good"

by Tim Challies

"It is a conviction meant to quiet our minds and encourage our hearts: In some way God has a hand in our suffering. Whatever circumstances we experience can no more arise without the hand of God than a saw can cut without the hand of the carpenter. Job in his suffering did not say, “The Lord gave and the devil took away,” but, “The Lord gave and the Lord took away.” Suffering never comes our way apart from the purpose and providence of God and for that reason, suffering is always significant, never meaningless. Here are some ways that God brings good from our suffering.

[6] Suffering makes way for comfort. God tempers outward pain with inward peace. “Your sorrow shall be turned to joy” (John 16:20), promises Jesus. In suffering we see water turned into wine, bitter medicine being chased with choice desserts. Many believers can testify that in suffering they have had the sweetest experiences of joy and the closest sense of God’s nearness.”

Outreach Prayer

The Grove Church Planting Network
Arizona

Join us in praising God for The Grove. We are grateful for a network of pastors and churches who seek to plant healthy, gospel-centered churches within driving distance of any person in Arizona. Praise God for the first actualization of this vision: the provision of Mosaic Church in Mesa, AZ!

Please be in prayer for the planting pastors, John and Chandler, their families, and the rest of the team as they make preparations to officially begin in the fall of 2024. Pray that they would be unified on all of the essentials. Pray that God would provide the means necessary to be planted and be sustained. Finally, pray that God would use Mosaic Church to be a strong witness for Christ in Mesa.

Isaiah 14:24-32

"Broken"

1. Read 14:24-27. What repeated words do you see? What message do you think God is trying to send?

2. Read 14:25. God punishes his enemies and rescues His people. Reflect on specific times in your life when God has rescued you from an ungodly person or situation.

3. Why do God's people need the constant reminder that He will punish His enemies. They aren't His enemies, but evidently need to keep His justice in mind. Why?

4. Read 14:32. How do you need the Lord as your refuge this week?
