

Affirmation of Member Commitment

I will be diligent to exercise self-control so that my lifestyle exhibits both true Christian love and personal holiness.

I will faithfully assemble with this body of believers, striving to maintain unity, and doing all I can to stimulate love and good deeds in others as I seek to exercise my spiritual gifts in faithful service.

I will consistently contribute, as a good steward of God's blessings, such time, talent, and resources, in the measure that God prospers me, so that the local and worldwide ministry of spreading the gospel may continue.

I will teach biblical truth to my family and acquaintances, as God gives me opportunity, with a desire to see them come to trust Jesus Christ and be saved.

I will always be willing to both give and receive admonition and instruction with meekness and in love.

I will commit to praying for the ministry here in this church, my brothers and sisters in Christ, the elders, pastors, and deacons; and for the lost who need the Savior.

I will, with the aid of the Holy Spirit, seek to love, encourage, teach, admonish, comfort, and exhort other members, with a genuine desire to see each one grow in the knowledge of Christ and His Word.

Book of the Month
Zeal Without Burnout
by Christopher Ash

"Ministry burnout doesn't just happen to pastors; it can affect anyone dedicated to serving Christ and His Kingdom. Living out the Great Commission can be difficult and exhausting, but burnout doesn't have to happen. It can be prevented, and those experiencing burnout can find restoration. In this book, Christopher Ash points the reader back to the greatness and all-sufficiency of God and shows how He supplies our every need to continue working for Him with joy and perseverance. Ash also intertwines real life examples of men and women who were suffering from burnout and were revived by the strength that God gives. If you might be on the edge of burnout, then this book would be a great help."

"The Harder Our Earth, the Sweeter Our Heaven"
by Tim Challies

"As we make the pilgrimage from here to there, as we endure this long journey, we expect that it will be difficult. We expect that we will experience the consequences that have come with mankind's fall into sin. We expect that we will endure sickness, bereavement, persecution, chastisements, and so many other forms of suffering. This is all inevitable in a world like this one.

While we do not wish to suffer, we must be confident that God always has purposes in it. And one of these purposes is undoubtedly to prepare us for what is to come, to shift our hearts from earth to heaven, from what is temporal to what is eternal. The sorrows here prepare us for the glories there. And this makes me wonder: wouldn't it be the ones who suffer most on earth who are best prepared to enjoy heaven? Wouldn't it be the ones who were deprived of so much here who will be most satisfied there?"

Outreach Prayer

The Grove Church Planting Network
Arizona

Join us in praising God for The Grove and all of the healthy churches that are involved in this network. God is good in providing a group of pastors who seek to plant healthy churches throughout Arizona. God is also good in the first provision in this plan: Mosaic Church in Mesa!

Please join us in prayer for The Grove Network. Pray that the member churches would continue to have unity and desire to forward the gospel in planting healthy churches. Pray that each church would continue to be provided for financially so that they in turn would be able to support future church plants.

Join us in prayer for Mosaic Church. Pray that both planting pastors, John Pope and Chandler Nick, would continue to be encouraged and strengthened as they plan to open in the fall of this year. Pray for their families as well. Finally, pray that Mosaic Church would have an impact for Christ's Kingdom in the West Mesa area, where there are currently no healthy churches.
