

Affirmation of Member Commitment

I will be diligent to exercise self-control so that my lifestyle exhibits both true Christian love and personal holiness.

I will faithfully assemble with this body of believers, striving to maintain unity, and doing all I can to stimulate love and good deeds in others as I seek to exercise my spiritual gifts in faithful service.

I will consistently contribute, as a good steward of God's blessings, such time, talent, and resources, in the measure that God prospers me, so that the local and worldwide ministry of spreading the gospel may continue.

I will teach biblical truth to my family and acquaintances, as God gives me opportunity, with a desire to see them come to trust Jesus Christ and be saved.

I will always be willing to both give and receive admonition and instruction with meekness and in love.

I will commit to praying for the ministry here in this church, my brothers and sisters in Christ, the elders, pastors, and deacons; and for the lost who need the Savior.

I will, with the aid of the Holy Spirit, seek to love, encourage, teach, admonish, comfort, and exhort other members, with a genuine desire to see each one grow in the knowledge of Christ and His Word.

Book of the Month
Zeal Without Burnout
 by Christopher Ash

"Ministry burnout doesn't just happen to pastors; it can affect anyone dedicated to serving Christ and His Kingdom. Living out the Great Commission can be difficult and exhausting, but burnout doesn't have to happen. It can be prevented, and those experiencing burnout can find restoration. In this book, Christopher Ash points the reader back to the greatness and all-sufficiency of God and shows how He supplies our every need to continue working for Him with joy and perseverance. Ash also intertwines real life examples of men and women who were suffering from burnout and were revived by the strength that God gives. If you might be on the edge of burnout, then this book would be a great help."

"A Deadly Foe of Spiritual Growth"
 by Tim Challies

"As we live out the Christian life and cooperate with the Holy Spirit through the precious means of grace, we face a number of foes, a number of enemies that mean to derail us from our pursuit of God. Of all those enemies, none may be more prevalent and none more deadly than complacency.

If it is humility that keeps us from thinking we have somehow risen above those ordinary means, complacency is that all-too-familiar satisfaction with our own accomplishments. It is that feeling, that conviction even, that we have done enough, that we have done more than enough, that we can now relax our pursuit of God. Yet what God said to Isaiah, he says to us: "This is the one to whom I will look: he who is humble and contrite in spirit and trembles at my word" (Isaiah 66:2)."

Outreach Prayer

The Standridge Family - Emmanuel Church
Rome, Italy

Join us in praising God for the Standridge family, their church, and the mission they are on to bring the message of the Gospel to Rome. Praise God that there is a beacon of hope for those trapped in Roman Catholicism to find true life in Christ. Praise God for a fruitful English camp, where kids were loved on and were able to learn about the God revealed in the Bible. Praise God for the other local church that they are able to partner with.

Join us in praying for the Standridges and Emmanuel Church. There has been a potential opportunity to purchase commercial space that is connected to what they already have. So, please pray for wisdom for how to proceed. Pray for the ministry of the Word as Jordan is preaching through Ephesians. Pray for any visitors that join on a Sunday morning. Finally, continue to pray for more opportunities to share the Gospel and connect with other believers in the area.

1 Peter 1:6-9

1. What does it mean that God “tests” our faith?
2. What are some reasons the text gives for God “testing” our faith? Can you think of other Scriptural reasons?
3. In what ways is the phrase “if necessary” crucial for understanding suffering and hardship?
4. Who are some biblical figures that embody the “if necessary” principle? What were some outcomes of their hardships?
5. If someone were to say that God does wrong or evil by testing our faith, how might you respond?
6. Verse 9 is a future-oriented promise. In what ways does a future outlook help and motivate us to persevere through trials?
7. The texts speak simultaneously of rejoicing and grief. In what ways do these fit together? What has this looked like in your life?
