

Affirmation of Member Commitment

I will be diligent to exercise self-control so that my lifestyle exhibits both true Christian love and personal holiness.

I will faithfully assemble with this body of believers, striving to maintain unity, and doing all I can to stimulate love and good deeds in others as I seek to exercise my spiritual gifts in faithful service.

I will consistently contribute, as a good steward of God's blessings, such time, talent, and resources, in the measure that God prospers me, so that the local and worldwide ministry of spreading the gospel may continue.

I will teach biblical truth to my family and acquaintances, as God gives me opportunity, with a desire to see them come to trust Jesus Christ and be saved.

I will always be willing to both give and receive admonition and instruction with meekness and in love.

I will commit to praying for the ministry here in this church, my brothers and sisters in Christ, the elders, pastors, and deacons; and for the lost who need the Savior.

I will, with the aid of the Holy Spirit, seek to love, encourage, teach, admonish, comfort, and exhort other members, with a genuine desire to see each one grow in the knowledge of Christ and His Word.

Book of the Month
Zeal Without Burnout
by Christopher Ash

“Ministry burnout doesn’t just happen to pastors; it can affect anyone dedicated to serving Christ and His Kingdom. Living out the Great Commission can be difficult and exhausting, but burnout doesn’t have to happen. It can be prevented, and those experiencing burnout can find restoration. In this book, Christopher Ash points the reader back to the greatness and all-sufficiency of God and shows how He supplies our every need to continue working for Him with joy and perseverance. Ash also intertwines real life examples of men and women who were suffering from burnout and were revived by the strength that God gives. If you might be on the edge of burnout, then this book would be a great help.”

- Elijah Olander

Weekly Resource

“The Hidden Cancer in Our Churches”
by Michael Reeves

“What is the most urgent need of the church today? Better leadership? Better training? Healthier giving? Orthodoxy? Moral integrity? Each of these are undoubtedly needs, but underneath them all lies something even more vital: gospel integrity.

In Luke 12, when thousands had gathered together to hear Jesus, he began to say to his disciples first, “Beware of the leaven of the Pharisees, which is hypocrisy” (Luke 12:1). That might have been unsurprising had he been warning the people as a whole, but he said it to his disciples first, to those who had already left all and followed him. Clearly, hypocrisy—a lack of integrity in both head and heart—was a danger even for them.”

Outreach Prayer

Yavapai Territorial Gospel Rescue Mission
Prescott, Arizona

Join us in praising God for YTGRM and the ministry that this organization is involved in. Praise God for the celebration of 13 years of serving women and children in need. We are grateful that YTGRM has been able to care for the lost and hurting with both temporal and eternal needs.

Please join us in prayer for YTGRM. Pray for volunteers and staff, that they would have unity, energy, and sincere hearts when caring for their guests. Pray for the continued provision of resources to keep this ministry going. Finally, pray for those in the care of YTGRM, that each person would feel settled and comfortable, that God would provide employment, that healing would take place, and that they would be receptive to the love of God found in Jesus Christ.

Philippians 2:1–11

"Form of God; Form of a Servant: Christ in Two Registers"

1. The passage speaks of the obedience of Jesus; how can Jesus be God and at the same time be in submission to any authority?

2. Why was obedience necessary for Jesus to accomplish in the incarnation?

3. Scripture speaks of three persons in the Trinity (Father, Son, and Spirit); how do we distinguish these three?

4. Philippians 2:7 says that Christ "emptied himself"; what does this mean?

5. How are we to follow Jesus' example in the incarnation, and what difference does that make in the life of a local church?

6. Is there value in considering church history when interacting with key doctrines in our day?
