

Affirmation of Member Commitment

I will be diligent to exercise self-control so that my lifestyle exhibits both true Christian love and personal holiness.

I will faithfully assemble with this body of believers, striving to maintain unity, and doing all I can to stimulate love and good deeds in others as I seek to exercise my spiritual gifts in faithful service.

I will consistently contribute, as a good steward of God's blessings, such time, talent, and resources, in the measure that God prospers me, so that the local and worldwide ministry of spreading the gospel may continue.

I will teach biblical truth to my family and acquaintances, as God gives me opportunity, with a desire to see them come to trust Jesus Christ and be saved.

I will always be willing to both give and receive admonition and instruction with meekness and in love.

I will commit to praying for the ministry here in this church, my brothers and sisters in Christ, the elders, pastors, and deacons; and for the lost who need the Savior.

I will, with the aid of the Holy Spirit, seek to love, encourage, teach, admonish, comfort, and exhort other members, with a genuine desire to see each one grow in the knowledge of Christ and His Word.

Book of the Month
Zeal Without Burnout
by Christopher Ash

“Ministry burnout doesn’t just happen to pastors; it can affect anyone dedicated to serving Christ and His Kingdom. Living out the Great Commission can be difficult and exhausting, but burnout doesn’t have to happen. It can be prevented, and those experiencing burnout can find restoration. In this book, Christopher Ash points the reader back to the greatness and all-sufficiency of God and shows how He supplies our every need to continue working for Him with joy and perseverance. Ash also intertwines real life examples of men and women who were suffering from burnout and were revived by the strength that God gives. If you might be on the edge of burnout, then this book would be a great help.”

Weekly Resource

"We Become What We Behold"
by Bob Thune

"How are we transformed into the image of Christ? By beholding the glory of the Lord. Who causes us to behold this glory? The Spirit. And where do we behold this glory? Primarily in the Scriptures. The Holy Spirit is both the source of Scripture (Eph. 6:17; 2 Peter 1:20–21) and the One who illumines its meaning (Acts 10:44; 1 Cor. 2:4; 1 Thess. 1:5). We behold the glory of the Lord by allowing the Spirit to speak to us through the Word, bringing God’s truth to our hearts with fresh power and urgency.

But perhaps this still sounds rather abstract. Does this beholding “just happen”? In one sense, yes, for it’s a gift of grace. But in another sense, beholding God’s glory involves purposeful effort. “I have set the LORD always before me,” the psalmist said (Ps. 16:8). “Choose this day whom you will serve,” Joshua demanded (Josh. 24:15). The language of worship in Scripture is always the language of commitment, devotion, and surrender.”

Outreach Prayer

The Church in Chinandega, Nicaragua

Join us in praising God for Pastor Frank and the church he is leading in Chinandega. We are grateful for 10 years of faithful ministry and the preaching of God's Word to souls in a spiritually dark area. Christ is not finished building His church!

Please be in prayer for our brothers and sisters in Chinandega. Pray that more people would be reached with the message of Jesus. Pray for the continued health for Pastor Frank, his family, and the rest of the church as it is winter there. Pray for their study in the Book of Acts. Pray for the men whom Frank is training for leadership. Pray that these men would grow and be emboldened to glorify God by serving Him and His people. Finally, pray for the continued provision of the various needs this church has.

2 Corinthians 3:18

"The Hope of Change"

1. According to verses 16-17, how does one come to saving faith? How can this truth be comforting in your personal evangelism?

2. Change comes from beholding the glory of the Lord. Is this a difficult truth to accept? Why or why not?

3. Do you think there is a connection with what you behold and what you love or prioritize?

4. What are the obstacles for believers to behold God's glory?

5. What are practical ways you can behold God's glory?
