

Affirmation of Member Commitment

I will be diligent to exercise self-control so that my lifestyle exhibits both true Christian love and personal holiness.

I will faithfully assemble with this body of believers, striving to maintain unity, and doing all I can to stimulate love and good deeds in others as I seek to exercise my spiritual gifts in faithful service.

I will consistently contribute, as a good steward of God's blessings, such time, talent, and resources, in the measure that God prospers me, so that the local and worldwide ministry of spreading the gospel may continue.

I will teach biblical truth to my family and acquaintances, as God gives me opportunity, with a desire to see them come to trust Jesus Christ and be saved.

I will always be willing to both give and receive admonition and instruction with meekness and in love.

I will commit to praying for the ministry here in this church, my brothers and sisters in Christ, the elders, pastors, and deacons; and for the lost who need the Savior.

I will, with the aid of the Holy Spirit, seek to love, encourage, teach, admonish, comfort, and exhort other members, with a genuine desire to see each one grow in the knowledge of Christ and His Word.

Book of the Month Talking As Teammates by Steve Hoppe

"Are you finally ready to end the conflict in your marriage or other relationships and start glorifying God? Steve Hoppe's book Talking as Teammates initiates heart-probing introspection on how sin affects our communication. Hoppe's 31-Day Devotional will give you the tools to discuss the relational issues we all face, married or single. This book delivers Christ-centered hope daily as the author aids us in applying biblical truth to God's plan for all relationships."

- Pastor John

Weekly Resource

"His Delight is not in Your Strength"
by Marshall Segal

"We fight sinful self-sufficiency by glorying in all that God can do, and we fight by learning to embrace just how little we can do apart from him. Jesus says to his disciples, "I am the vine; you are the branches. Whoever abides in me and I in him, he it is that bears much fruit, for apart from me you can do nothing" (John 15:5). Many of us can recite the phrase, and still quietly suspect that he's really exaggerating. We know we can do something on our own. And if we won't admit it, our prayer lives betray us.

The humble are strong precisely because they know how weak they truly are — and how strong God will be for them. They sing, "My flesh and my heart may fail, but God is the strength of my heart and my portion forever" (Psalm 73:26). They exhort one another, "Finally, be strong in the Lord and in the strength of his might" (Ephesians 6:10). They serve "by the strength that God supplies — in order that in everything God may be glorified through Jesus Christ" (1 Peter 4:11)."
