

Affirmation of Member Commitment

I will be diligent to exercise self-control so that my lifestyle exhibits both true Christian love and personal holiness.

I will faithfully assemble with this body of believers, striving to maintain unity, and doing all I can to stimulate love and good deeds in others as I seek to exercise my spiritual gifts in faithful service.

I will consistently contribute, as a good steward of God's blessings, such time, talent, and resources, in the measure that God prospers me, so that the local and worldwide ministry of spreading the gospel may continue.

I will teach biblical truth to my family and acquaintances, as God gives me opportunity, with a desire to see them come to trust Jesus Christ and be saved.

I will always be willing to both give and receive admonition and instruction with meekness and in love.

I will commit to praying for the ministry here in this church, my brothers and sisters in Christ, the elders, pastors, and deacons; and for the lost who need the Savior.

I will, with the aid of the Holy Spirit, seek to love, encourage, teach, admonish, comfort, and exhort other members, with a genuine desire to see each one grow in the knowledge of Christ and His Word.

Book of the Month
Talking As Teammates
by Steve Hoppe

"Are you finally ready to end the conflict in your marriage or other relationships and start glorifying God? Steve Hoppe's book Talking as Teammates initiates heart-probing introspection on how sin affects our communication. Hoppe's 31-Day Devotional will give you the tools to discuss the relational issues we all face, married or single. This book delivers Christ-centered hope daily as the author aids us in applying biblical truth to God's plan for all relationships."

Weekly Resource

"We Need a Paradigm Shift about Money"
by Paul David Tripp

"We need a brand-new way of thinking about money, a way that is rooted in the gospel story and its narrative of the lavish grace of God, most powerfully pictured in the amazing gift of the Lord Jesus. Through the life, death, and resurrection of Jesus, God frees us from our bondage to ourselves (in terms of money, that means always starting with our interests and concerns) and he frees us to find our identity, meaning, and purpose in him. He calls us to embed our personal money stories in the larger generosity story of Scripture. This means resting in the fact that he has committed to provide everything we need (not want) and accepting that he calls us to be part of his mission of grace. So we view our money not primarily through the lens of personal provision, but through the lens of God's generosity mission on earth."

Outreach Prayer

The Church in Chinandega, Nicaragua

Join us in praising God for Pastor Frank, his family, and the church they serve in Chinandega. Praise God for a group of brothers and sisters that are committed to Him and His Word, even in a spiritually dark area. Praise God for their ability to continue to meet together regularly for worship. Praise God that He has continued to provide this church with what they need.

Please also be in prayer for our brothers and sisters in Chinandega. Pray for Pastor Frank, 1) for wisdom as he trains other men for leadership, 2) his time preaching through the Book of Acts, and 3) for his family and their ability to have gratitude and faithfully serve in all circumstances. Pray for the church, for 1) an upcoming member meeting, 2) guidance and provision for construction on a church premises, and 3) that God would use them to be a beacon of hope in their community.
