

Affirmation of Member Commitment

I will be diligent to exercise self-control so that my lifestyle exhibits both true Christian love and personal holiness.

I will faithfully assemble with this body of believers, striving to maintain unity, and doing all I can to stimulate love and good deeds in others as I seek to exercise my spiritual gifts in faithful service.

I will consistently contribute, as a good steward of God's blessings, such time, talent, and resources, in the measure that God prospers me, so that the local and worldwide ministry of spreading the gospel may continue.

I will teach biblical truth to my family and acquaintances, as God gives me opportunity, with a desire to see them come to trust Jesus Christ and be saved.

I will always be willing to both give and receive admonition and instruction with meekness and in love.

I will commit to praying for the ministry here in this church, my brothers and sisters in Christ, the elders, pastors, and deacons; and for the lost who need the Savior.

I will, with the aid of the Holy Spirit, seek to love, encourage, teach, admonish, comfort, and exhort other members, with a genuine desire to see each one grow in the knowledge of Christ and His Word.

Book of the Month
Talking As Teammates
by Steve Hoppe

"Are you finally ready to end the conflict in your marriage or other relationships and start glorifying God? Steve Hoppe's book Talking as Teammates initiates heart-probing introspection on how sin affects our communication. Hoppe's 31-Day Devotional will give you the tools to discuss the relational issues we all face, married or single. This book delivers Christ-centered hope daily as the author aids us in applying biblical truth to God's plan for all relationships."

- Pastor John

Weekly Resource

"Hallelujah Over Hell? How God's People Rejoice While Their Enemies Perish"
by David Mathis

"When we get to glory, we'll find eternal joy in the God of lavish mercy and uncompromising justice. In fact, we wouldn't be able to find eternal, ever-increasing, ever-deepening joy in a God who was unjust. Deep down, we don't want a God without wrath and power. We don't want a God who affirms the wicked, or simply leaves them be. We don't ache for a God who stands idly by while evil goes unpunished.

Soon enough, the shades of grey will be gone, and those outside of Christ will be revealed as hardened rebels against their Creator; haters of the God we love; abhorers of the Christ we adore, and of his bride. There's an all-stakes war going on for the cosmos—one we ignore to our own peril."

Outreach Prayer

The Grove Church Planting Network and Mosaic Church

Join us in praising God for The Grove and all of the healthy churches that are involved in this network. God is good in providing a group of pastors who seek to plant healthy churches throughout Arizona. God is also good in the first provision in this plan: Mosaic Church in Mesa!

Please join us in prayer for The Grove Network. Pray that the member churches would continue to have unity and desire to forward the gospel in planting healthy churches. Pray that each church would continue to be provided for financially so that they in turn would be able to support future church plants.

Join us in prayer for Mosaic Church. Pray that both planting pastors, John Pope and Chandler Nick, would continue to be encouraged and strengthened as they plan to open in the fall of this year. Pray for their families as well. Finally, pray that Mosaic Church would have an impact for Christ's Kingdom in the West Mesa area, where there are currently no healthy churches.

Isaiah 24

"The Final Judgment of the Earth"

1) Why do you think God wants us to know about all the different types of people who will be judged in verse 2?

2) Read verses 4-13. Note all of the sad/depressing words. Why do you think God has used all of these types of words to explain what will happen at the final judgment? What is He communicating with us?

3) Read verses 14-15 slowly. God is describing His remnant of worshipers, not those who will be judged. Consider each of these statements. If these realities aren't true of you now, ask the Lord to make your heart sing to Him.

4) How does this chapter inform your personal evangelism?
