

Affirmation of Member Commitment

I will be diligent to exercise self-control so that my lifestyle exhibits both true Christian love and personal holiness.

I will faithfully assemble with this body of believers, striving to maintain unity, and doing all I can to stimulate love and good deeds in others as I seek to exercise my spiritual gifts in faithful service.

I will consistently contribute, as a good steward of God's blessings, such time, talent, and resources, in the measure that God prospers me, so that the local and worldwide ministry of spreading the gospel may continue.

I will teach biblical truth to my family and acquaintances, as God gives me opportunity, with a desire to see them come to trust Jesus Christ and be saved.

I will always be willing to both give and receive admonition and instruction with meekness and in love.

I will commit to praying for the ministry here in this church, my brothers and sisters in Christ, the elders, pastors, and deacons; and for the lost who need the Savior.

I will, with the aid of the Holy Spirit, seek to love, encourage, teach, admonish, comfort, and exhort other members, with a genuine desire to see each one grow in the knowledge of Christ and His Word.

Talking As Teammates
by Steve Hoppe

"Are you finally ready to end the conflict in your marriage or other relationships and start glorifying God? Steve Hoppe's book Talking as Teammates initiates heart-probing introspection on how sin affects our communication. Hoppe's 31-Day Devotional will give you the tools to discuss the relational issues we all face, married or single. This book delivers Christ-centered hope daily as the author aids us in applying biblical truth to God's plan for all relationships."

Weekly Resource

"Don't Let Go of God's Sovereignty over Your Worst"
by Cameron Cole

"The witness of Scripture testifies to a God who remains sovereign in every moment.

The Bible says that God controls the forces of nature (Ps. 147:15–18). His providence rules over plants and animals (Jonah 4:6; Matt. 10:29). He ordains random events (Prov. 16:33; Act 1:23–26). He reigns over rulers and nations (Job 12:23–25). He controls major disasters (Lam 3:37–38; Amos 3:6). He has power over the spiritual forces of evil (1 Sam. 16:14; Matt. 8:31–32).

If God controls all of these elements of existence—all of which are far less significant to him than you, his child—then certainly he reigns in the story of your life, even in your Worst."

Outreach Prayer
Indian Bible College
Flagstaff, Arizona

Join us in praising God for IBC. The Lord is good in providing an institution that seeks to equip students to grow in biblical knowledge in order to take the message of Jesus Christ to Native Americans and beyond. God has been gracious in continuously providing for the needs of IBC, including various churches that have sent teams to IBC for several work projects. Finally, we are praising God for fruitful ministry done through IBC. Students and staff had recently travelled to France to encourage churches and endeavor on evangelistic efforts.

Join us in prayer for IBC. Pray for both students and staff as they prepare for the incoming fall semester. Pray for any new students that will be attending in the fall. Pray for the continued meeting of needs for IBC. Pray that the fellowship and evangelism that occurred in France would produce lasting spiritual fruit.

John 11:1-27

"Believe in the Sovereign Savior"

1. How would you define the word sovereign?
2. Can you think of a time where God's sovereignty in the timing/response to your prayers was evident?
3. What are some obstacles/opponents that could interfere with your ability to "work while it is day?" Have you surrendered those things to God?
4. How does knowing that Jesus claimed victory over death itself change how you understand his sovereignty?
5. How does this passage affect how you pray?
6. What does it look like for you to trust in the Sovereign Savior?

This image shows a blank sheet of white paper with horizontal grey ruling lines. The lines are evenly spaced and run across the width of the page. In the bottom right corner, there is a small, stylized illustration of a dark grey or black pen nib, angled upwards and to the left, as if about to write. The overall appearance is that of a clean, unused piece of stationery.
