

Affirmation of Member Commitment

I will be diligent to exercise self-control so that my lifestyle exhibits both true Christian love and personal holiness.

I will faithfully assemble with this body of believers, striving to maintain unity, and doing all I can to stimulate love and good deeds in others as I seek to exercise my spiritual gifts in faithful service.

I will consistently contribute, as a good steward of God's blessings, such time, talent, and resources, in the measure that God prospers me, so that the local and worldwide ministry of spreading the gospel may continue.

I will teach biblical truth to my family and acquaintances, as God gives me opportunity, with a desire to see them come to trust Jesus Christ and be saved.

I will always be willing to both give and receive admonition and instruction with meekness and in love.

I will commit to praying for the ministry here in this church, my brothers and sisters in Christ, the elders, pastors, and deacons; and for the lost who need the Savior.

I will, with the aid of the Holy Spirit, seek to love, encourage, teach, admonish, comfort, and exhort other members, with a genuine desire to see each one grow in the knowledge of Christ and His Word.

Weekly Resource

"Looking Heavenward Transforms Our Sorrow"

by Cameron Cole

"Many may think this heavenly mindedness would make a person detached and ineffective in this present earthly life. The opposite was true for the apostle. He had a fierce sense of commitment to evangelism, missions, and church planting. He showed a noble buoyancy and perseverance in suffering. He had an enviable level of contentment in this life. Paul was resolute in his commitment to morality and ethics. More than anything, he demonstrated bravery through his absence of fear about death.

Paul had character, contentment, and conviction that we would all long for, but the factors that enabled these blessings for him are common to all believers. In a manner that certainly is more modest than what the apostle experienced, I have tasted some of the richness and transformation of the heavenward life, and I long for others to enjoy them too."

Outreach Prayer
The Standridge Family
Rome, Italy

Join us in praising God for the Standridge family and the church that Jordan pastors. Praise God that there is a beacon of hope for those trapped in Roman Catholicism to find true life in Christ. Praise God for a fruitful English camp, where kids were loved and were able to learn about the God revealed in the Bible. Praise God for the other local church that they are able to partner with.

Join us in praying for the Standridges and Emmanuel Church. There has been a potential opportunity to purchase commercial space that is connected to what they already have. So, please pray for wisdom for how to proceed. Pray for the ministry of the Word as Jordan is preaching through Ephesians. Pray for any visitors that join on a Sunday morning. Finally, continue to pray for more opportunities to share the Gospel and connect with other believers in the area.

Isaiah Q&A

On Sunday, April 14, Pastor Andrew will spend time after the sermon answering questions from the congregation about what we have covered in Isaiah 13-27. Scanning the QR code with your phone will take you to a link where you can submit a question.

Isaiah 25:1–26:6

"Reasons for Eternal Praise"

- 1. Read 25:1. What wonderful things has God done to save you in the past?

- 2. Read 25:6. Do you think non-Christians think of God like a host of a wonderful feast? Why? Or Why not?

- 3. Do you think Christians think of God like a host of a wonderful feast? Why? Or Why not?

- 4. Reflect on 25:8. We are told that God will take away our reproach (shame). We are all ashamed of things that we've done, said, or thought in the past. Take time to reflect on the fact that God not only forgives, but He offers an end to being ashamed.

- 5. 25:9 are the words that will be uttered in the future as we are in the presence of our God. What things make it hard for you to wait on God today? Think about your own uttering of these words in the future. When you are in the presence of Christ, how do you imagine that you'll think about all the time you had to wait for Him to return?

- 6. In thinking of Moab's punishment, what was offered to them and what did they reject? Look back to 16:3-6

- 7. Consider the setting of 26:1-3. When will perfect trust and perfect peace be realized?
