

Affirmation of Member Commitment

I will be diligent to exercise self-control so that my lifestyle exhibits both true Christian love and personal holiness.

I will faithfully assemble with this body of believers, striving to maintain unity, and doing all I can to stimulate love and good deeds in others as I seek to exercise my spiritual gifts in faithful service.

I will consistently contribute, as a good steward of God's blessings, such time, talent, and resources, in the measure that God prospers me, so that the local and worldwide ministry of spreading the gospel may continue.

I will teach biblical truth to my family and acquaintances, as God gives me opportunity, with a desire to see them come to trust Jesus Christ and be saved.

I will always be willing to both give and receive admonition and instruction with meekness and in love.

I will commit to praying for the ministry here in this church, my brothers and sisters in Christ, the elders, pastors, and deacons; and for the lost who need the Savior.

I will, with the aid of the Holy Spirit, seek to love, encourage, teach, admonish, comfort, and exhort other members, with a genuine desire to see each one grow in the knowledge of Christ and His Word.

Book of the Month

Praying with Paul
by D.A. Carson

"Prayer is one of the most important spiritual disciplines we have. We have the opportunity and privilege of dialoguing with a holy God. However, our prayers must be formed and guided by Scripture. In Praying with Paul, D. A. Carson shows how the inspired words of Scripture can accomplish this as he exegetes and applies a variety of Paul's prayers in the New Testament epistles." - Pastor Josh

Weekly Resource

"We Need Restorative Rest"
by Jonathan Noyes

"... A bow that's never unstrung cannot kill dragons. During the seventh century, the longbow became a formative weapon. However, if you wanted your longbow to last, you would have to take the string off the bow, releasing the tension, and let it rest after the battle was over. If the bow was left in tension all the time, it would become deformed and unable to shoot arrows. The unending tension weakened the bow. The same is true of us. Unless we are regularly unstrung, the tension of our lives will weaken us to the point where we will no longer be able to slay dragons. We must have the tension of our lives unwound through rest. When we rest, we're then able to be more effective in battle. When we go without rest, not only are we unable to slay dragons, but every lizard becomes a dragon..."
