

Affirmation of Member Commitment

I will be diligent to exercise self-control so that my lifestyle exhibits both true Christian love and personal holiness.

I will faithfully assemble with this body of believers, striving to maintain unity, and doing all I can to stimulate love and good deeds in others as I seek to exercise my spiritual gifts in faithful service.

I will consistently contribute, as a good steward of God's blessings, such time, talent, and resources, in the measure that God prospers me, so that the local and worldwide ministry of spreading the gospel may continue.

I will teach biblical truth to my family and acquaintances, as God gives me opportunity, with a desire to see them come to trust Jesus Christ and be saved.

I will always be willing to both give and receive admonition and instruction with meekness and in love.

I will commit to praying for the ministry here in this church, my brothers and sisters in Christ, the elders, pastors, and deacons; and for the lost who need the Savior.

I will, with the aid of the Holy Spirit, seek to love, encourage, teach, admonish, comfort, and exhort other members, with a genuine desire to see each one grow in the knowledge of Christ and His Word.

Book of the Month

Praying with Paul
by D.A. Carson

"Prayer is one of the most important spiritual disciplines we have. We have the opportunity and privilege of dialoguing with a holy God. However, our prayers must be formed and guided by Scripture. In Praying with Paul, D. A. Carson shows how the inspired words of Scripture can accomplish this as he exegetes and applies a variety of Paul's prayers in the New Testament epistles." - Pastor Josh

Weekly Resource

"Dealing with Death and Disease"
by Robert Rothwell

"Christians also fear death and disease. Of course, we know that we're not supposed to, and we'd never tell anyone that we harbor such fears. Certainly, we know all the right things to say about death: God is sovereign. He has a good purpose in my pain. The Lord can teach and sanctify my family, friends, and me through the process of suffering and dying. Often, however, we say these things because we "have to" and not because we're fully convinced. I've been guilty of that.

Believers don't fear death and disease for the same reasons as non-Christians because we know Christ has a home for us in heaven (John 14:1-3). Instead, we fear losing control. We insure ourselves against property loss. We order our days so that we are most productive. By and large, we enjoy happy and fulfilling relationships by listening to others and giving of ourselves. But despite our best efforts, we can't keep death and disease away."

Outreach Prayer
Indian Bible College

Join us in praising God for yet another year of biblical, ministerial training! Praise God for over 65 years of blessing to and through IBC. Praise God for a growing student population and for the financial provision He's given to make IBC more affordable to these students. Praise God for such a school that trains men and women to take the light of the Gospel to spiritually dark places.

Join us in prayer for the leadership, faculty, returning students, and new students as they are in the early stages of the 23-24 school year. Pray that God would provide great instruction, motivation, and encouragement to each of the students. Pray that these men and women would grow in a deep love for God and for others as they fill their minds with both Bible doctrine and academics. Pray that God would continue to provide for the needs of IBC, especially in the college's hopes to expand its campus.
