1 Timothy 2:8–15, “Men’s and Women’s Roles in the Church that Proclaims the Gospel”

1. God commands the church to uphold the gospel (3:14-15) and to do so by being ordered in certain ways. How does refusing to obey the commands in this passage affect our gospel witness?

2. Men, assess your leadership as it relates to praying at church. Are you being obedient to God’s role for you? Can anything be improved?

3. Men, are you killing the sin of anger? What can be done to grow in this area?

4. Men, are you holding any grudges with others in the church? What should be done?

5. Women, do you want to be known more for your outward appearance or your inward godliness? Is there a need for growth in this area?

6. Women, do good works for the body characterize your involvement in the local church?

7. Men and women, do you see God’s role for you as wise?

8. Men and women, take time to praise the Lord. The roles He calls you to are the same roles He empowers you to fulfill.
