2 Peter 3:1-7

“Don’t Forget the End”

1. Peter says one of the greatest needs of mature believers is to be reminded of truths they already know (v. 1-2). Why do you think we so easily “forget” the gospel and God’s promises?

2. Peter tells believers to remember both the Old Testament prophets and the teaching of Christ passed down through the apostles. What does this teach us about the authority and sufficiency of Scripture? How should that shape the way we respond to competing voices in our culture?

3. According to verses 3-4, what motivated the scoffers’ rejection of Christ’s return? Why is it important that Peter connects their false doctrine with their sinful desires?

4. Peter says the scoffers “deliberately overlook” God’s work in creation and the flood (v. 5-6). What is the difference between lacking evidence and refusing to acknowledge evidence? How have you seen this distinction play out in conversations?

5. Peter points to God’s past faithfulness as assurance of His future promises. How has remembering God’s faithfulness in your own life strengthened your confidence during seasons of waiting or uncertainty?

6. If you were fully convinced that Christ could return at any time, what would change about your priorities, your relationships, or your pursuit of holiness this week?
