Isaiah 31–32, “The Great Society”

1. Read 31:6-7. It's clear that turning to God will flesh itself out in real-life decisions. What costly act do the repentant people of God do in these verses?

2. Is there anything for you to repent of today? What real-life actions will demonstrate this repentance?

3. In 32:2, the people who rule in the name of God will be known as protectors and helpers. As a child of God, are there ways that you could help/protect others in His name?

4. Read 32:17. The New Covenant people of God are also to bring about peace. We have the Spirit of God Who enables us to do so. Now read James 3:13-18, and notice the similarities with our passage in Isaiah. According to James 3:13-18, how could you work to bring about peace with others?
