

Suggested Sermon Discussion Questions and Thoughts
Isaiah 40:1–11, “Too Amazing Not to Announce”

1. God clearly demands that His wonderful message of salvation be announced. Consider your own personal evangelism. If you were to score it on a scale of 1-10, what would the score be?
2. Assuming your personal evangelism score is not a 10 out of 10, what would be needed for improvement (prayer, courage, a plan, a greater desire to see people saved)?
3. List three topics people would say you like to talk about? Is the gospel or character of God on that list?
4. Read 40:1-2. What in the text demonstrates that God is trying to get His point across?
5. If you are currently mourning over a particular action or thought of yours, what from this passage would be an encouragement to you?
6. Read 40:6-8. Identify a time in your life when you were consumed with your own glory, looks, fame, popularity. What truth from God’s word reshaped your thinking so that you no longer live for yourself, but for Him?
